The Tribune.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1884.

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT was elected by acclamation last Thursday, to represent the Riding of South Huron in the Dominion Parliament.

MR. GLASTONE entered on his seventy-fifth year, last Saturday. It is surprising to see him still able to attend to all the concerns of state, with no apparent abatement of physical or intellectual ability. Let us hope that he may be long spared to guide the destinies of the mighty Empire of which he is the uncorrupted Ruler.

From all sides come complaints of the exorbitant and discriminating charges imposed on the public by the different express companies operating in Canada. The Government should take immediate steps to place some limits on the charges levied by the companies, and the Postal authorities might do much to relieve business men by allowing larger parcels to be carried through the mails. It is about time that the present state of affairs should be brought to a close, and we hope to hear of some member at the approaching session of Parliament bringing up the matter with a view of effecting a remedy.

THE TRIBUNE has refrained for some time from making any reference to the Cemetery question, thinking that the matter would be taken up by the clergymen and other leading residents of the village. Now that the holiday season is coming to a close it may not be out of place to draw attention to this matter, and urge that immediate steps be taken to secure the land necessary for the purpose. We will not waste time nor insult the intelligence of our readers by advancing arguments to prove the necessity which exists for such an adjunct to Deseronto. All are agreed that it is time something should be done, and we presume the only question is concerning the best mode of proceeding in the premises. Having great faith in the open discussion of all matters of public importance, we take the liberty of suggesting a public meeting being called by the Reeve at some early day, when a committee might be appointed to get information concerning a suitable site, and the probable amount required for its purchase. It will not do to allow another summer to pass away without an honest effort being made to provide a suitable resting place for the dead, to which the frequent visits, by love and respect for the departed, may be quickly and conveniently made.

It is generally understood now, that more school accommodation will be provided next summer, and that it will be necessary to secure the services of two additional teachers. The crowded condition of the different departments necessitate this action, which will meet with the approval of all the ratepayers of the village. The present buildings are free from debt, and there is besides a respectable surplus in the treasury. This shows that the board has been very economical in management, but we fear that this economy has been practised at the expense of efficiency. It is quite obvious, that it has been impossible for the teachers in the primary departments, at least, to do their work during the past year or two, and the cause of education has therefore not advanced in a ratio proportionate to the other interests of Deseronto. The board must bear the larger share of the blame in this matter, but the ratepayers cannot shirk their share of the responsibility. To judge from the attendance at the recent public meetings, little interest is manifested in educational matters by the public. And yet all will readily admit that this age, roads, sewerage, and boardwalks are only secondary in comparison with our public schools. The board will we hope take immediate action, and not increase its guilt by again crowding a hundred children into one room, asking one teacher to take charge of them. That would be cruelty. Why not, as has been suggested, temporarily fit up the Town Hall for a school room and thus relieve the congested departments at once? It must not go abroad that, even for three months, this village is at a stand-still, or worse, in the most important of its public interests.

THE statement presented by the Reeve on Nominating day showed that financially the village occupies an excellent position. There are few towns or villages, which can boast of such a satisfactory exhibit. It proved that those who have in former years managed affairs here, on the whole, been prudent in the performance of their duties and that they have worked for the welfare of the village. Mistakes have no doubt been made and there is still room for the introduction of reforms. Councillors are aware of this and remembering that there is a lively and healthy opposition to criticise their proceedings, and above all that the TRIBUNE will closely scan their acts, they will exercise still greater vigilance in the future. The various addresses delivered on the occasion, manifested the existence of no small amount of excellent business and debating ability, and the fair discussion of public affairs cannot but be productive of good. Some references made to property qualifications show that excellent as is the municipal system of Ontario, there are still left some features which smack of the medieval ages. If no property qualification is demanded of the member of the Dominion Parliament who is called to deal with matters of national concern, it should we think be competent for the most humble ratepayer to take a seat at the Council Board of any municipality. It would be in keeping with the reputation of the village for progress and liberality, if the new Council would lead the van in memorializing the Government for a change, having this object in view. The election by acclamation of the old Council, is the best evidence of its efficiency, and at the same time electors will appreciate the magnanimity of those gentlemen, who, with numerous friends to support their claims, gracefully retired from the contest.

A lot of remnants to be sold regardless of cost, at the Big Store.

Is it Proof you want?

No one can doubt the great merit of Polson's Nervine, for it has been placed in the market in 10 cent bottles, just to give you the opportunity of testing its wonderful power over all kind of pain. This is the best evidence of its efficiency, for every person can try for himself. Polson's Nervine is a positive (it cannot fail) cure for cramps, headache, colds, neuralgia, and the host of pains that flesh is heir to. Good to take, good to rub. Go to Egar's drug store and buy a bottle.

DISTRICT.

Campbellford has a skating rink. Stirling School affairs appear to be in a middle.

Peterborough is proud of its new white house.

The Saved Army think of publishing a paper in Ficton.

Mr. Allison's election for Lennox, has been protested.

Workworth had a great skating carnival on New Year's night.

The Colborne Express has entered on its eighteenth year of publication.

Ald. W. Wilson will contest the Mayoralty of Kingston, with Dr. McCammon.

The Bishop of Ontario, firmly but respectfully refuses to interfere in the case of Dr. Wilson.

Geo. Wheeler, lately from England, is believed to have committed suicide, near Ganition.

Two teams came into collision on Christmas day, at Kingston, and one horse was killed as a result.

The moulders in the Belleville stove foundry, have agreed to accept a reduction of twenty per cent.

The Rev. J. Petrie, succeeds Rev. Dr. Wilson, in the curacy of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston.

Last week a span of horses ran away from a grist mill at Battersea, and running against Fergus Jordan, a deaf-mute, injured him fatally.

The St. Lawrence Hall at Brockville, was destroyed by fire last Sunday morning, several of the occupants having a narrow escape.

On Xmas night John Kennedy, a farmer of Rawdon, took two teaspoonfuls of Paris green with the intention of committing suicide, he died two days after.

The County Council of Prince Edward, had a pleasant trip recently, over the Central Ontario Railway, on invitation of Mr. G. W. McMullen the manager.

The Gananoque Reporter complains of unjust and exorbitant charges by E. E. press companies. These companies require to be brought under more complete government control.

James Jackson, alias George Foster has been sent by the Police Magistrate for six years, for stealing a horse, buggy, robes &c., from parties in Harrowsmith.

Napanee & Tamworth Ry.

Last week an engine-tender and box car went off the track, getting pretty well smashed up as a result. A Grand Trunk engine and wrecking car was sent down from Belleville and succeeded in getting them on the track after some hard work.

It will be seen also by an advertisement in another column that the Company have applied for legislation to extend the line and add branches, including one to run northwesterly from York or some other point to tap the Kingston & Pembroke Ry.

The line, it will also be remembered, passes through the hydraulic quarries of the Napanee Cement Co., which has gained such a favorable reputation for its products. All these points show that there is a good future in store for the Napanee, Tamworth & Quebec Ry.

There are some excellent deposits of building stone at different points along the line, and Mr. Seal, the well-known builder and contractor, pronounces it superior to any that he has hitherto used in Central Ontario. This will open up another source of traffic for this favoured line.

Mr. Henry, President of the Napanee Paper Company, states that the present is a good season for getting cordwood off the drowned lands, and that 10,000 cords will be got out this year. This will furnish a large amount of traffic for the line. It is estimated that in the aggregate there are about 100,000 cords of wood on the drowned land to be taken out yet, besides what may be used by owners of adjoining properties.

PERSONAL.

SHANNONVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Amid the festivities of the Xmas season many a household among us has been called to rest in the sadness of sorrow, and in the very shadow of death. Our esteemed postmaster, Mr. Craper and wife, have been summoned to the death-bed of a brother-in-law, Mr. Dancy, near Northport, who has been smitten by the hand of the Destroyer while yet in the prime of manhood. R. A. Sullivan, one of the leading merchants of the village has been several weeks confined to his house, and recovery seems to be very slow, if not doubtful. His absence from among us awakens the deepest sympathy for himself and family.

Mrs. Day, the estimable mother-in-law of the Rev. J. C. Ash, lies at the deathbed in a parlour at the point of death. She has been a very great minister and the Messenger will bring to her tidings of release.

The Presbyterian Church here will hold its anniversary on Sabbath next, Professor Mowat of Queen's College, will preach in the morning and afternoon Rev. Mr. McLean of Belleville. The annual Festival will be held in the Masonic Hall on the Tuesday following.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1884.
TOWN AND COUNTY.

1884.

Good sleighing.

A very Happy New Year.

Heavy fall of snow yesterday.

It is a cold look out for the ice men.

Councillors now breathe more freely.

Dried berries just opened at the Big Store.

How many new leaves have you turned over since the first.

The Arrow brand of axes are the best for sale at the Big Store.

The Cedar Mill started again on Monday morning for the balance of the winter.

Great clearing sale now going on at the Big Store.

The carcass of a defunct feline may be seen in all its frozen ghastliness on Main street west.

Some good hits on Nominations day in the passagat-at-mass concerning the stone-sawdust gravel contract.

LARGESHIPMENTS.—Over 1500 carloads of material were shipped from the Cedar Mill during the month of December.

It would be an improvement to the skating rink if the walls were raised three feet higher to break the winds from the bay.

PROGRESS.—An enterprising citizen has produced a sensation during the past week by clopping with another man's wife, the mother of two children.

MESSRS. Butler and Gallagher, who have been in town lately, report the sleighing good in the back country, and plenty of snow for logging purposes.

This being leap year a TRIBUNE commissioner, armed with a huge blank book will soon be dispatched to take a census of all the old maids in the village, from thirty upwards.

EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS.—Nearly 40,000 doors have been turned out from the Sash and Door Factory during the past year, ample evidence that it has been a busy year in that department.

GOOD CHIEF.—Mr. Thos. Callaghan did not forget his Deseronto friends at Christmas, having thoughtfully forwarded the carcass of a fine deer to be divided among them, thus contributing to the good cheer of the holiday season.

New Year's day was observed very generally and apparently much more pleasantly even than Christmas. There was a good deal of driving, which made the streets quite lively; the skating rink was well patronized; the shooting match attracted a large number of visitors, and Kris Kringle and other pleasant gatherings in the evening afforded an unlimited amount of pleasure to all.

The way to save money is to purchase goods cheap, therefore avail yourself of the opportunity offered during the month of January of obtaining dry goods, clothing, gent's furnishings and millinery at cost price. No reasonable offer refused, as we are determined to reduce our stock before stock-taking on February 1st. Come and join the multitude of customers at McAlister's cheap store.

ESQ.—At the request of a number of friends the Cantata, "Catching Kris Kringle" was repeated by the Ladies' Aid Society on New Year's night. With the exception of the fact that the audience was thoroughly wearied waiting for the rise of the curtain, the performance was well carried through, the various artists sustaining their parts with great credit, and thus proving that our reporter did not overdraw the facts in his account of the first performance. The two nights net the Society some $50.

GOOD WORK.—A large number of railway frogs have been manufactured for the Napanee & Tamworth R'y, and other lines, at the Machine Shop here, and they are pronounced of an excellent quality, the cars passing over them without any perceptible jar. This reflects much credit on Mr. John Prickett, foreman of the blacksmith shop under whose supervision they have been manufactured.

Several have resolved to borrow their neighbor's TRIBUNE no longer, but to subscribe for themselves at once.

The Christmas tree for Christ Church Sunday School is to take place on Tuesday evening, January 8th, as usual, in the Church. Look out for an enjoyable time.

Mr. George Gynow, Chief of Police, has been appointed a constable for the County of Hastings, thus enabling him to act outside the limits of the corporation of Deseronto.

Every one has been busy making good resolutions for the new year, but few are more commendable than that which has for its object a subscription for the TRIBUNE for the current year.

Good.—The proposal made at the Town Hall on Monday to select a brigade of firemen who should be rewarded for their services was well received, and will be carried into execution.

One of the teams engaged in drawing cordwood from the other side of the bay dropped through the ice last Friday morning, but the horses were fortunately got out again without injury.

Read the advertisement of J. Gibbard & Son in another column. This firm has a reputation all over the Bay district for excellent work and readers will find it to their advantage to give them a call.

SCOTLAND YET.—We thankfully acknowledge the receipt of a large piece of genuine Scotch cake, kindly handed us by Mr. Campbell Innes, who has not forgotten the New Year's customs of the "Land o' Cakes."

REPAIRS.—The Sash factory and Machine Shop have been closed down for a few days for the purpose of making the annual overhaul of machinery and adding some improvements to gain an increase of power.

Mr. Jas. McConnell, of Richmond, who lives on the Napanee road, a mile east of the boundary, lost two valuable cows on Christmas night. They had undermined a large straw stack until it toppled over, crushing them to death.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATION.—There were five candidates presented themselves at the recent examination, viz.: Eliza Foote, Emma Solmes, Margaret Edwards and Minnie Conley, of Deseronto, and Rose McKenty of Tyendinaga. The result will not be known for a week or two.

At the regular meeting of Deseronto Lodge, No. 192, I.O.O.F., held on Wednesday evening, 26th ult., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:—E. A. Rixen, N. G. (sec.); I. W. Bradbeer, V. G.; E. W. Scott, R. S.; C. E. Hubbs, P. S.; W. G. Egar, Treas.

VERY PLEASING.—We learn that a more than usually pleasant and successful social party took place on New Year's night at the hospitable residence of Mr. Stuart Bowen on the Napanee road. It partook of the nature of a surprise and was largely attended by the young people of Deseronto.

The Indian Churches on Christmas day were both overwhelmingly attended, and were very prettily decorated. The offerings returned the large amount of $37.90, which subsequently was brought up to something over $50.00, more than double the sum received by Mr. Baker last Christmas. The communicants numbered 105.

Now that the ice bridge has been securely formed, there is a perceptible increase in the number of customers at the different business establishments. People from the other side of the bay find Deseronto a convenient trading point and best market for produce in the bay district. Merchants and others will find it to their advantage to advertise in the TRIBUNE if they desire to secure their share of this country trade.

The Sunday School of All Saints' Church held their annual Christmas Tree in the Council House on Thursday evening, Dec. 27th, and in spite of bad roads and threatening weather it proved successful. About $30. worth of presents, chiefly Bibles and Prayer books, were distributed by Santa Claus to a large number of delighted little ones, and the Superintendent of the School (Mr. Joseph John) and other teachers, together with Rural Dean Baker, Mrs. Baker and Mr. G. H. M. Baker were by no means forgotten, but received handsome gifts, that for Mr. Baker being a pair of costly Persian Lamb skin gauntlets. Reading and carols by the children, songs and instrumental music made up a pleasing programme. Too much praise cannot be given to Miss Maggie Johnson, Miss Lydia Hill and Mr. John for their excellent management of the affair. Much valuable assistance was rendered by the Misses Orondytchka and Loft in the musical portion of the proceedings.

The Big Store has reduced the price of all winter goods so as to make room for spring importations.

Last Friday evening a car ran off the track near the Cedar Mill, but damages fortunately were insignificant.

GREAT TRAFFIC.—186 car loads of freight passed outwards on the Bay of Quinte Railway during December, and 42 inwards, making a total of 228 cars.

Barnhart's skating rink is now in full blast, being well patronized by the young people of the village, who appear to enjoy most thoroughly this invigorating exercise.

Some of the young men are moving for the establishment of a literary society. That is a movement which should meet with the hearty support of the community.

The annual Congregational meeting of the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer will be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock. A large attendance of the congregation is requested.

The Chief has been putting in force the city ordinance about hand-sleighs which are not allowed on the board walks. The juveniles are up in arms in consequence, and threaten hostilities.

On account of the smallness of the keyhole our reporter is unable to ascertain the date which our Masonic brethren have fixed for that supper of ball, which it is generally assumed will come off at an early day.

Mr. Craig will open a Bible class next Sabbath in connection with the Union Sabbath School, and requests that all, either young or old, who may be disposed to join, will try and be present next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

NEWLY elected town councillors, as well as our popular new magistrate, will remember that Mr. R. Geddis keeps constantly on hand a good supply of choice eyeglasses, which are served up in the best of style. His establishment is a few doors west of the TRIBUNE office.

The analysis and parsing at the last high school entrance examination, upon which, also, fifty per cent. is exacted, is considered by many competent judges, a very unfair test. The choice of such an obscure and misleading piece shows that the man setting the paper has a very faint idea of the requirements of the case.

MAGISTRATE APPOINTED.—The Reeve having brought to the attention of the Local Government the necessity for an additional magistrate in Deseronto, the Government have accordingly appointed Mr. Alex. H. McGaughey, a Justice of the Peace, for the County of Hastings. It will be acknowledged that more popular appointment could be made, and the TRIBUNE unites with the rest of the community in congratulating the new appointee on his elevation to his new position.

ST. MARK'S SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The entertainment of St. Mark's Sunday School last Thursday evening was well patronized, there being a large attendance of children and their friends, all wearing that happy cast of countenance characteristic of Christmas and its festivities. Several charades and tableaux were successfully enacted, the various characters being well sustained by those taking part. Mrs. Coleman and Miss Anderson rendered solos with good taste and effect, and the scholars were then treated to an excellent magicians' entertainment manipulated by Mr. Hobart, of Kingston, who had kindly come up to Deseronto to add to the pleasure of the evening. All returned home well pleased with their evening's amusement.

SHOOTING MATCHES.—The shooting matches on New Year's day brought together a large number of ardent sportsmen, and attracted also a large attendance of visitors who appeared to enjoy the sport very much. Appended will be found the scores made at the glass ball matches:

Religious services were held in the Church of the Redeemer on Monday evening.

SOCIAL AND X'MAS TREE.—The social held at the residence of Mrs. Close last Friday evening, proved a very pleasant affair and was numerously attended. The printed programme was rigidly adhered to and successfully carried out by Miss Jones and her pupils, to the satisfaction of the company and the credit of the committee of management. The well arranged Christmas tree was stripped of its load of presents, which were distributed among the pupils, much to their delight, while Miss Jones was remembered with the donation of a twenty-dollar gold piece. Refreshments were bountifully supplied during the evening to the guests, our reporter coming in, of course, for more than his share. This pleasant affair testified to the esteem in which Miss Jones is held by her friends and pupils.

CRYING KRIS KRINGLE.—The aim of the pleasing Cantata "Catching Kris Kringle," is to show the true spirit in which to enjoy Christmas. It teaches the children especially, though all may ponder it, that to each the possession of a true Christmas heart is valuable, making Christmas the most joyful festival of the year, and its memories pleasant and helpful. Presented last Friday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church of the Redeemer it was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience, who showed their appreciation by hearty applause, and a request at the close made by the Reeve, that the performance be repeated in a short time. The first scene presents the children hanging up their stockings and singing "He is coming, Kris Kringle," their mirth is suddenly arrested by the three servants entering to tidy the room. The Misses Chapman, Deans, and M. Anderson, performed the rest of the scene with uncommon histrionic ability, making us wonder where they had been trained. The second scene represents the family entertaining guests on Christmas Eve. The sound of Church chimes, the singing of a Cathedral choir, the home carols of the family, Messrs. H. Aylsworth, J. Gough, and Ada Burgess and Maud Anderson leading in the solos to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Gough, who efficiently discharged the position of hostess; the invisible choir music led by Miss Deans; the graceful motions of Maggie Poitras—the little Bertha who would yet catch Kris Kringle; the beautifully rendered alto solo "Good Night," by Miss Barnhardt, closing the scene; all presented such a home scene on Christmas Eve as warmed the hearts of the audience, and reflected the sweet images of many such Christian homes throughout our land, where Jesus, Bethlehem, and Christmas are sacred names. In the third scene Bertha catches Kris Kringle, much to her delight, when she finds that he is her dear grandpa. Kris found no better representative this year, we engage to say, than William Bryant Rathbun, who most efficiently played his role, and as the children caught up the chorus "We have found him, Kris Kringle," gave in spirited accents the lesson of the play, "anyone can be Kris Kringle if he has a Christmas heart." Miss Frances Rathbun accompanied on the piano the opening and closing choruses. Smiles lit the faces of all, mothers and fathers grasped their children, having wrapped them well from the cold blast, young men and maidens looked for each other, truly boys gulped down the lesson of the evening, and all went home resolved to watch for the next appearance of Kris Kringle.

Sudden attacks of illness should at this season be provided against. Poison's New Cure, the great pain cure, is a never-failing remedy for all ailments of the stomach, bowels, diarrhoea, dysentery, and spasms are cured as if by magic. Always sure for neuralgia, rheumatism, &c. A 10 cent sample bottle will prove its efficacy. Buy it at 25 cent bottle at Egar's drug store. Use Poison's Nervine.

Meetings by both Orangemen and Nationalists were held on Tuesday at Drumore, county Cavan, and great excitement prevailed. Twenty thousand Orangemen were present. Three Nationalist handmen were arrested for carrying revolvers. An encounter occurred between bodies of the two factions on the way to the meetings, but the troops interfered and cleared the streets. The rival meetings were held in close proximity to each other, but were kept apart by large bodies of troops and police. On the meetings dispersing several ineffectual attempts were made to attack each other. A young man was wounded by a bullet passing the crowd, probably fatally. A battery of artillery has been sent to Drumore from Woolwich to assist in preserving order.

WHEN WE WERE CHILDREN.

Have you forgotten, little wife,
Our far-off childhood's golden life?
Our splendid castles on the sands,
The boat I made with my own hands,
The rain that caught us in the wood,
The cakes we had when we were good,
The doll I broke and made you cry,
When we were children, you and I!

Have you forgotten, little wife,
The laughing days that other life?
The strange new light the whole world wore,
When life love's perfect blossom bore!
The dreams we had! the songs we made!
The sunshine! and the woven shade!
The tears of many a sad good-bye,
When we were parted, you and I!

Ah, say! your loving heart, I know,
Remembers still the long ago,
It is the light of childhood's days
That shines through all your winning ways.
God grant we never forget our youth,
Its innocence, and faith, and truth,
The smiles, the tears, and hopes gone by,
When we were children, you and I.

Napanee & Tamworth E'y.

The annual meeting of the N. T. & C. E'y. will be held on the 15th inst. at the Company's Offices, Napanee.

The G. W. R. box car recently wrecked near Yorkville arrived in Deseronto on Monday, showing evidences of a good turn over. Contractor Rowe succeeded in raising the snow-blocks on Monday, and the work of track-laying and ballasting was resumed.

W. R. Aylworth, Esq., in company with the President, Engineer and Contractor of the line went out on Tuesday to examine a reported sink-hole on the line in the vicinity of Deseronto.

High School Entrance Examinations.

At the recent high school entrance examinations, all the candidates from Mr. Emerson's department successfully passed. Examinations were held at Tweed, Stirling and Deseronto, at which twelve candidates from South Hastings wrote for admission. We give a list of those provisionally admitted, with the number of marks. The maximum number being 500, and the minimum, 250.

The Bloomfield Murder.

The examination of the prisoners for supposed complicity in the Bloomfield tragedy commenced Dec. 28th, at Pictou, before C. C. Curry, Police Magistrate and Justices Allan and Taylor. The crown was represented by Mr. P. Low, Q. C., and Mr. N. Gilbert, applier for the prisoners. Several witnesses were examined. Mr. Jones and his wife gave evidence concerning the occurrences of the fatal night, but could not swear positively that Thompson or the Louder were the men whom they had seen in the house. Mr. Jones testified to his having received $500 that day for furs, and several other parties, who were present at the time, proved that Thompson had been at the railway station when the payment was made.

Chief McKinnon, of Belleville, gave very damaging evidence against the prisoners. He testified to a careful examination of the footprints, and found that they agreed exactly with Thompson's boots. He had made a careful and perfect test and had no hesitation in saying that the same boots were on the rear of Jones' house and near the march in the vicinity of Louder's home. There was a difference of nearly a quarter of an inch between the heel and the half-sole of the two boots, which showed distinctly in the footmarks in the snow and ice. The uppers on the outside of each of the boots produced in court extend over the sole, and the right one more than the left, which was indicated by the tracks tested. He swore positively, therefore, that the tracks could have been made by no other boots than those of Thompson. Other constables confirm this evidence. The tracks showed that the party had been going part of the time hastily and part of the time leisurely, and frequently they stopped in the same tracks. The track going eastward, and they separated was zig-zag, and evidently made with the intention of hiding the trail. The track leading southwest was much the same, sometimes over a fence, and once track. Chief McKinnon also stated that he had found one single and two double barrelled guns at Louder's, one of which was fresh capped and loaded. The Court was adjourned until January 5th.

On account of stormy weather the examination was again postponed until yesterday, but the result is not yet known. There is a rumor that the mask worn by the prisoners has been found at his home, and that other corroborative evidence has been discovered sufficient to justify the Magistrate in committing the prisoners for trial at the coming assizes.

Maxime. To be healthy use Crowfoot Bitters. To be wealthy will them. You will prove yourself wily by keeping them constantly in the house.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

CANADIAN.

Diphtheria is prevalent in Smith's Falls. Funds are low in the Montreal city treasury.

Mr. E. Jack will represent New Brunswick at the Forestry Exhibition at Edinburgh, Scotland.

Simcoe, Berlin, St. Thomas, and London carried the Free Library Bill-Long Monday, and Whittly defeated it.

The Governor General has contributed $250 to the relief of the sufferers by the recent fire.

A large force of clerks will soon be dismissed from the public departments at Ottawa, half of them having nothing to do.

Morrisburg editors receive supplies of coal. New York, in return for the year.

A citizens' meeting at Halifax expressed the opinion that the Government should build an extension of the Intercolonial from Lewis to Montreal.

The locomotive house at Gananoque caught fire last Thursday evening in the midst of the storm, but the fire was extinguished before much damage had been done.

The Warr for a provincial election in South Renfrew has been issued. The nomination will take place at Pembroke on the 11th and polling on the 15th of January.

There was a serious collision on the C. P. R. last Thursday night at St. Martin's station, near Montreal, the Pullman car of a passenger train being telescoped by a freight, and several passengers more or less seriously injured.

The Grand Trunk have laid down a large quantity of rails at different places along the line intended for the use of laying another track. At Kingston station there are deposited about 20,000 rails and a similar quantity at Gananoque.

At Kempsville last week two men named Tannoy and McNamee entered into a dispute which resulted in McNamee stabbing Tannoy in the right side. He is in a dangerous condition. McNamee immediately gave himself up to the police.

A gentleman who has just returned from the North West says that the recent changes in the land policy of the Government are giving general satisfaction and that there were many land seekers eagerly inquired after by bona fide settlers.

On Thursday night an old woman living alone in an old tumble-down house in Collingwood and known as Mrs. McLaughlin, was frozen to death. She was found on Friday morning by neighbors, frozen stiff. The weather has been exceedingly cold the last few days.

Two peculiar cases were reported at the Kingston police court on Saturday. A family named Carr were arrested because the authorities were afraid they would die of hunger and cold. In the second case a mother complained of the misconduct of her son, whose case became more offensive when it was stated that the father has been partially frozen searching for the erring one.

The Public Funeral at Toronto of the victims of the Humber disaster on Saturday was a large and impressive one. The turn-out resembled that on the occasion of the funeral of the volunteers who fell at Ridgeway 17 years ago. Public interest is manifested in the raising of subscriptions for the relief of the destitute families and a steady determination to see that they have a show in the courts for damages against the railway. In all probability the Esplanade question and that of Suburban Railway operations generally will be dealt with to some purpose.

AMERICAN.

In the past year the total catch of mackerel by the New England fleet was 225,000 barrels, a decrease of 152,000 compared with last year. There was an increase in the catch of other fish.

The San Francisco dispatch says: The disturbance in Hawaiian Islands may result in the accession to the throne of Queen Emma, the widow of Kamehameha, the accomplished daughter of Dr. Rooke, an Englishman of note. The trouble grew out of a loan of $1,000,000 which King Kalakaua contracted with Calixto Brothers.

In Ling a Chinese laundryman was found murdered at his place of business in New York with fourteen stab wounds in his back. A Chinaman named Lu Fung seen in the street yesterday has been arrested, but protests his innocence. It is thought that Lung may have been the victim of a secret organization, which is said to exist among the Chinese in this country and which exacts the penalty of death from those who disobey its laws.

The residence of Milton Highland at Mechanistown, Ohio, was burned last night. The family, Grace and Mollie, perished. Before retiring a member of the family hung clothing near a grate. This taking fire caused the disaster. About two o'clock Highland's eldest daughter was awakened by a cracking noise and, finding the room filled with smoke, she made a heroic struggle to reach the rooms and her sisters. Volumes of smoke prevented her, however. She then being badly burned leaped from the window and succeeded in saving other members of the family barely in time to save their lives. The cause was a grate.

The Institute of the Immaculate Conception at Belleville, Ill., was destroyed by fire last Friday night. There were sixty pupils. The building, thirty years old, was a fine structure. It is not the least probability that any missing will be heard of alive. The Mother Superior and Sister Philina left their lives endeavoring to arouse the inmates of the dormitory. James Smith, the watchman of the Harrison Machine Works, who first saw the flames, says when he reached the convent the whole building was a roaring mass of flames and the inmates were at the windows shrieking and praying for help. The entire populace of Belleville hurried to the scene, and thousands came from St. Louis. Many of the pupils lived in towns near by, and the suspense and agony of their friends is terrible.

FOREIGN.

It is reported that Lord Dufferin will be sent to Egypt to remain so long as the existing difficulties continue.

The garrisons of Duem and Kooni have arrived. They were escorted from both banks of the river at Hamed. Col. Bert replied with artillery. None of the party was injured.

It is announced that the work of constructing the new Roman Catholic Cathedral in Westminster, Victoria street, will be begun at once. The building is to cost something over £200,000.

A tradesman committed suicide on Friday in the Bois de Boulogne by placing around his neck an iron tube filled with explosive material which he ignited. His body was blown to pieces.

The garrisons which Ili Mahdi's brother-in-law led at Duem and Kooni have arrived in front of Khartoum and have made the British garrisons there feel the force of the attack. Khartoum will be strongly defended.

The Malgasy envoys have accepted the ultimatum of the French Government, sending to the latter all that territory in Madagascar lying between Capes St. Andrew and Bellone. The guarantees have been referred to the Hova Government.

The French Government has sent an apologetic note to Berlin, expressing regret at the omission of the French ironclad to salute the fleet of the Crown Prince Frederick William in the Gulf of Lyons, while the Prince en route between Italy and Spain. The note also states that the captain of the French vessel has been summarily dismissed from command.

The best fire escape is when your wife gets up in the morning and makes it. The best disease escape is take Crowfoot Bitters.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. A vertical crease is visible near the right edge, suggesting it was once part of a bound volume. The page is otherwise empty of any text or markings.

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 1884.

The date for the opening of the first session of the Fifth Parliament of Ontario has been fixed for the 23rd inst.

As a result of the recent storms the principal highways have been rendered almost impassable, thus proving that little progress has been made during the past fifty years in the way of preventing the recurrence of such blockades. Municipalities should be empowered to enforce the partial removal of fences along the principal roads or in places which are well known to become blocked in stormy weather. It might also be well to insist in future on the erection of wire fences where new fences require to be put up on roads by which the mails are conveyed by stage. Under the present condition of things many detentions and no doubt great loss to business men necessarily follow.

We are glad to hear that the school board has decided, if the council will grant the town hall for school purposes, to employ another teacher and thus relieve the junior departments, which are at present sadly crowded. This is a move in the right direction, and something that will meet the approval of every person who has any regard for the health and advancement of the children. The idea of over a hundred scholars in one small, badly ventilated room is simply monstrous. The desks which will be required for the new building to be erected this coming season are to be purchased now, and as they are simply screwed to the floor, the expense of procuring the required accommodation will be trifling, and the sooner it can be carried into effect the better.

The approaching session of the Provincial Legislature promises to be very interesting, parties being more equally balanced than they have been for years. The debates promise to be very exciting, even though many of the questions to be discussed have become stale and unpalatable to the readers of the daily press. The Boundary Award and the Rat Portage affair will be made themes of an unlimited amount of fierce invective and biting sarcasm; and electors, as they read the speeches of honourable members, will congratulate themselves that they are represented by such disinterested patriots, ever jealous of the interests of Ontario. The new Minister of Education will have his hands full defending the management of his department. The action of the Government in reference to University College will be anxiously awaited, though it is probable that both political parties having a keen eye for votes will endeavour to shirk this important and perplexing question. We trust that the Government will have nerve enough, either by the abolition of Upper Canada College, or by an additional grant, to relieve University College and place it on a satisfactory basis. To yield to the agitation in favour of grants to denominational colleges would be a step backwards in the cause of higher education. What we need in this and other provinces of the Dominion, is university consolidation, as there are at present far too many degree conferring institutions. It would appear from hints thrown out by government organs, that a measure will be introduced for the better suppression of bribery and corruption at elections. That corruption is universally prevalent on such occasions, is only too evident. The disclosures weekly given in the election courts only too painfully confirm this statement, and any measure that will be instrumental in checking this evil, should meet with general support. The great trouble in this matter, is that the arch-corruptionists, the Dominion and Local governments, are scarcely reached, or that the act leaves them the usual coach-and-four road of escape. In the event of an election, their various machinery is immediately put into effect to bribe the constituency. Engineers are dispatched to examine sites for public buildings and make preliminary surveys for public works, railway bonuses are granted, new post-offices established, senators made, the staff of school and license inspectors increased, and accredited agents found everywhere to profuse in their outlay of money and patronage. All this is done professedly for the public good, but in reality to buy the electors en bloc. If efforts were made to reach ministers and heads of departments who direct these movements, people would be disposed to consider the politicians in earnest in trying to check the tide of electoral corruption.

U. E. Loyalists.

The movement, which THE TRIBUNE had the honour of first advocating, of making a suitable demonstration next summer, to celebrate the settlement of the Loyalists in the bay district has now assumed shape, and a public meeting will be held to-day in the town hall, Adolphustown, to consider the best mode of giving effect to the public agitation on this important matter. Various plans have been proposed; among others the newly inducted rector of Adolphustown, suggesting the erection of a memorial church, to which, however, there are many objections on the ground that such an edifice would be erected by the members of the Church of England, in memory of the early settlers.

In THE TRIBUNE's last article on the Loyalists, references were made to the various modes and routes by which these pioneers made their way from New York to their new homes in Canada. The present may be considered an opportune occasion for giving some account of the early settlement of Adolphustown, in many respects the most sacred spot connected with the early history of Ontario. Adolphustown, originally called the Fourth Township, received its present name in honour of Adolphus, Duke of Cambridge, tenth son of George III. In the year 1783, a party of Loyalists, under command of Capt. Vanalstine, sailed from New York and in a month's time arrived at Quebec. From Quebec they proceeded to Sorel, where they shared in linen tents. In the spring they set out in batteaux, and reached the fourth township on the 10th of June, 1784. According to Caniff's account, they passed the present Adolphustown wharf, westward nearly half a mile, and rounded Hagerman's Point where a small stream empties into the bay. They ascended this creek for nearly a quarter of a mile and proceeded to land upon its south side. Between the creek and the bay is a pleasant eminence, and it was upon its slopes that the settlers under Vanalstine pitched their tents. At an early day they drew lots for land, each of the company receiving a grant of 200 acres. While yet living in their tents, one of the number, a child it is said, died and was buried close by under a tree. Others were afterwards buried here and thus was formed the U. E. Loyalist burying ground.

These pioneers were a wonderfully hardy set of men and many lived to a great age despite their numerous hardships. Very few of them died under eighty, and two of them lived to be over a hundred, John Fitzgerald dying at the age of 101, and Daniel Clark at 102. The little colony prospered and in 1812 had a population of 575 souls.

The time came when Adolphustown became almost the principal place in Upper Canada, being the centre of the settlements in the midland district. Court was alternately held there and at Kingston, twice a year in each place. The first court was held in the barn of Paul Huff, which served the purpose very well in summer, and was made better provided with ventilation than any of the modern buildings in which judges and juries are so frequently stifled, and slowly but surely done to death. In winter the Methodist Chapel was secured for the purpose until a Court House was erected. The building of a court house was followed by the growth of a village, and among its population were many whose names became household words in every Canadian home. It continued a place of importance for many a year, but gradually its glory, except as a place ever to be held sacred for its historical associations, departed, and younger rivals more fortunately situated for purposes of trade have come to the front. Adolphustown, at eloquently stated by the historian from whom we gather all this information, contributed many of those men who have made their mark in political, as well as in more general matters relating to the country. In the old homesteads, which there gradually arose, were born and spent their boyhood days, a host of sons, who, moving further west, planted the townships.

There was the birth place of Judge Hagerman, Sheriff Ketchen, and others who have left their names on the pages of Canadian history. There flourished the earliest lawyer of the Province, Judge Hagerman's father, and there also played as a boy the present premier of the Dominion. Such are some of the facts which we have gleaned for those readers, who at this time are taking so much interest in the early settlement of the Province by their Loyalist forefathers.

BITTERS!

Are you a martyr to Sick Headache? Do you feel miserable after eating? Does your stomach feel sour continually? Then use Crowfoot Bitters, the greatest tonic for the stomach of the age.

TESTIMONIALS.
Rev. R. Large Says:
Being for years afflicted with Dyspepsia, and finding my health greatly improved by only a little of the Crowfoot Bitters, I am pleased to recommend it to those in like manner afflicted.

R. LARGE,
Minister of the M. E. Church, Beaked, Ont.
This is to certify that I have used the Crowfoot Bitters, and can recommend it as a first-class medicine for the blood. Was very much distressed for ten years. After using the above Bitters I could eat anything I wished without feeling any discomfort after, and feel thankful for the good health I am enjoying through them.

Yours, etc., SAMUEL ELYNA,
St. Line, St. Vincent.
Only One Package Cures Dyspepsia.
Only a dollar package of the Crowfoot Bitters cured me of Dyspepsia after all other remedies failed.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Wilson Clark spent New Year's at his brother's, Joseph Clark's, at Mass., as visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. A. Johnston, of Port Perry has been the guest of Mr. John McWain at Bethany.

Mr. Wilson Clark has moved into his new house with the best wishes of his numerous friends.

Mr. James Howell and Miss Howell spent New Year's in Prince Edward visiting friends.

Mr. Samuel Humbly, of North Fredericksburg, is doing a very large business in wood this winter.

The Rev. Mr. Phillips has been holding revival services in the C. M. Church at Greta with good success.

Miss Mary Clark, of Peterborough, has been spending the holidays at Mr. H. Goodfellow's, the popular postmaster at Macdonald.

A party of back-layers started to Deseronto with a surprise party, but lost their way on the ice and strayed about for some time, until they were at last obliged to return home with long heads and long lips.

KINGSTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. C. E. Hubbs looked in on us on Monday.

Mr. H. B. Sherwood was storm-bound in the city a couple of days this week.

First crossing on the ice-bridge with horses was accomplished on the 4th inst.

Dr. McCannan takes his seat as Mayor minus a protest from Dr. John Stewart, a usual occurrence.

Presence of business has kept us from contributing to THE TRIBUNE this last two weeks, but hereafter we shall brace up and try to do better.

Mr. R. H. Baker radiant with smiles and flushed with champagne, honors lately won disclosed himself to our view this week as a living exponent of Crown Jewels greatness.

The K. & P. R. H. have had rather a tough time of it in consequence of the late storm. Latest report, two engines and a snow plow ditched.

Of the many resolutions for the new year that we have formed, we submit the following:

That we shall resent, on all occasions, the classical name of dude.

That we want smoke unless offered a 15c. Havana. So please don't ask us to break our word.

That we want take our best girl for more than three sleigh rides this season, if the present financial depression continues.

That when the old familiar saying, "same year poison," fills gently upon our tympanic membrane we shall respectfully decline.

That the budget speech, for 1884, having been submitted, and no increase of salary marked opposite our name, we shall proceed to economize by standing off the boarding misers, washerwoman, &c., for a six months stretch, while we draw interest on the wealth that would go to liquidate aforesaid debts.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PICTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Picton post-office without a mail for three days until Saturday afternoon, and then the mail was so great when the mail was ready for delivery, near 6 o'clock p.m. that a great many had to go home without making inquiry rather than be jolted and jammed in the eagerness of everyone to reach the delivery.

Town elections created much excitement. The temperance party were trying to get a majority in the council to diminish the number of hotels, increase the license fee, and not grant billiard licenses to hotels. Politics were laid aside. The question was, would you support the temperance platform or not.

What has become of D. W. Allison, M. P. He has not been seen in Picton since a few weeks previous to his election with Pruyn, and previously had been in town quite frequently. Election matters must be quite warm about Napanee yet, and his foes are likely to make him some trouble by protesting his election.

On Friday last the prisoners in jail for the murder of Lazier were to have had further testimony brought against them, but owing to the storm and bad roads, witnesses could not get here, and it was adjourned until yesterday at 10 a.m. Sufficient evidence has been given to send up two of them for trial at the assizes.

Our Dramatic Club had rather an expensive trip to Trenton, last week, where they played "Under the Gauntlet" on Wednesday night, to an audience of about 300, it being a stormy night for the people to turn out. But the after-part, or the return home is where their experience as dramatists began in reality. They boarded the C. O. R. R. for home about 7 a.m. with the Picton Cornet Band and friends, who went up from here in all about sixty persons. The snow till Comstock is reached about an hour late, when the lake is crossed and the train enters the cut on Mr. Arthur's farm on the opposite side where it came to a stand still owing to the great snow-banks formed during the night. Here was a delay of several hours and as the greater part of the passengers had left too early for breakfast, they began to feel the effects of hunger. A little supply of provisions was brought from Mr. Arthur's at prices claimed to be exorbitant, and after a time the train moved on only to be stopped in another bank of snow. It continued to move at intervals, until it reached Pittingill's cut, about two miles west of Wellington, where it came to a stand still, late in the afternoon. When the Conductor found it would be impossible to proceed with the train, he abandoned it and left for Wellington without giving the passengers due notice that further progress was impossible under the existing circumstances, and they would have to shift for themselves, but succeeded in reaching a hotel where he refreshed his inner man and reposed till morning, regarding the ladies and gentlemen he had left in the car, storm-bound. Some of the bravest of the young men faced the storm to the village and purchased a large supply of provisions and carried them on foot back to the car, it being impossible to reach it with a team, and the night was spent in the car by most of the party. Towards morning the cold fire began to give out and the ladies began to feel the effects of cold and went to sleep, and about six o'clock in the morning efforts were made to get the ladies to Mr. Pittingill's house, but before the house was reached two of the ladies fainted, or exhausted their physical strength, and had to be carried to the house. Mr. and Mrs. P. did what they could to assist the sufferers. During the forenoon teams were procured and succeeded in taking them all to Wellington to Garrett's hotel, where they remained till next morning, when the train brought them to Picton, about 10 a.m. Saturday.

The Dramatic Co. gave two performances of "Under the Gauntlet" in the town hall here to crowded houses previous to their trip and achieved renown unprecedented here before, and if they all survive this last event I hope they will give us next time "Under the Snow Drift," in all its originality.

DISTRICT.

Brockville has a defective fire system. There was a destructive fire at Colborne on Monday.

The Picton Times has entered on its thirtieth year.

Bishop Cleary is expected to arrive in Canada before Easter.

Dr. McCannan was re-elected Mayor of Kingston by acclamation.

Mr. Jas. Caracallen, of Napanee, has a sleigh that was built in 1782.

Exchanges were almost exclusively devoted to the municipal elections last week. An attempt was made recently to burn down the Gordon Street school in Kingston.

The Telegraph advocates the union of Prescott with the Counties for municipal purposes.

There was a stormy meeting of the Farmers' Club at Northport, but nothing was accomplished.

305,000 pounds of poultry were shipped from Brockville to points in the States the week before Christmas.

At the Smith's Falls turkey fair, the ladies of the district sold birds to the value of twenty-one thousand dollars.

Picton has organized a young people's library on the Chautauque system, meetings to be held monthly.

At a tea-meeting in Adolphustown over $2,600 was subscribed for the erection of a new Methodist church in that place.

The Kingston Locomotive Works Co. think of building composite steamers and barges in addition to their present works.

Newburgh young men disturb Saved Army meetings, and steal railway hand-cars for an occasional ride to neighboring villages.

By the explosion of a lamp, the barn and sheds occupied by Mr. H. L. McCaughy, front of Sidney, were destroyed by fire. Loss, $1,600.

The Central Ontario R.V. was completely blocked for several days by the late storm, and the Kingston and Pembroke train also stuck fast in a drift fifteen feet high.

Mr. Huntley, a school teacher in S.S. No. 22, Tyndinaga, is prosecuting D. Van-alstine, a resident of the township, for abusive language at a school meeting.

A vote was taken on Monday by the freeholders of Prescott to pass a by-law effecting a reunion of the town with the counties of Leeds and Grenville, from which it has been separated some fifteen years. The by-law was carried by about 70 votes.

At about 10 a.m. on the 4th, the house of James Stewart, on lot 29, first concession south of the gravel road in Tyndinaga, was destroyed by fire, and several of the children were slightly injured by its clothing taking fire. None of the contents of the building were saved. The loss would amount to probably $500. No insurance.

Mr. Francis Jones, C. E. late M. P. for Leeds and Grenville, has been appointed Engineer by the united counties of Stormont, Glengarry, and Dundas to report on the feasibility of deepening the National River, with a view of draining the low lands in the townships of Mattilda, Williamsburg, Mountain, Erie, and Winchester. This question has been under consideration in these municipalities for several years past, and an appropriation has been made by the Government of Ontario of $1,000 and $3,500 by the Dominion making $10,500, but as yet no satisfactory report has been made.

The Abyssinian demonstration on Kussala road renders the situation still more critical. Nothing can be done at present, as an immediate advance would mean disaster. The British gun-boats have gone to Massowah. One thousand women and children with four hundred soldiers are bravely holding out at Suakin. Even with the promptest action on the part of England there will be barely time to save these people from a terrible fate. It is believed there are 20,000 rebels between Suakin and Suakin. Should the Egyptians attempt to march to Berber it is believed that 100,000 rebels would oppose them.

Right at Home Testimony.

LESLIE COURT, Jan. 9.—We are not in the habit of puffing patent medicines, but we cannot withhold our testimony as to the great value of NERVINE as a remedy for pain. We have pleasure in recommending it as the never-failing remedy. John McArdle, Joseph Hudson, Cyrus Eaton, Rev. H. J. Allen, Benjamin Dillon, and many others.

Thousands of similar testimonials may be seen at our store. Go to Eggar's drug store and buy a bottle to-day. NERVINE, the sure pain cure. Ten cent sample bottles. Large bottles 25 cents at Eggar's drug store.

Two lovers in Milwaukee agreed to commit suicide at the same hour the other night. Next morning both were up an hour earlier than usual to look over the paper and their disappointment and disgust at such conduct on the part of the other was too deep for utterance.

Andrew Howe, Esq., of Meaford, says he was actually moved of indignation by using Crowfoot Bitters.

One from a Thousand.

MONTRO, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Yetro, one of my neighbors, was taken with violent cramps and pain in the stomach. My wife was called in to see her. The woman was in great distress. We had a bottle of your NERVINE in the house, which we got from your agent, Mr. Siler. My wife gave a dose and bathed her freely, and the woman became relieved immediately.—Cecily, SYCAMUS, J. P. You can test Polson's NERVINE for the small amount of 10 cents by buying a sample bottle at Eggar's drug store. Large bottles 25 cents.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 1884.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

SNOW.

BLIZZARDS.

MORE SNOW.

SOME more weather.

MORE muscle on the snow-shovel.

SOCIALS, carnivals and entertainments.

Mill street was pretty well blocked by the storm of last week.

We gladly place the Chatham Banner on our list of exchanges.

EVERY subscriber should remember that he is a correspondent, and should give a helping hand.

GOOD OFFER.—It is reported that Mr. Edward Wilson has been offered $1500 for his house and lot on George street.

MR. JACOB BREAUGH who has been driving out into the country a good deal lately reports the roads as being in a bad condition.

NOTICE.—Owing to unavoidable circumstances the Rev. J. Young will not lecture in the M. E. Church this evening, as previously announced.

SUBSTANTIAL AID.—The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Church of the Redeemer, have during the past ten months raised $320, which will be devoted to the mass building fund.

THE adjourned congregational meeting of the Church of the Redeemer will be held this evening in the lecture room of the Church at 7.30 o'clock. A large attendance is requested.

MORE TEAMS.—The recent advent in town of Mr. T. Butler resulted in the despatch of six additional teams, of the Rathbun Company, to take part in logging operations in the back country.

EXPRESS.—The express companies now deliver parcels, &c., over the Gananoque branch at the same rates that were formerly charged for delivery at the G. T. station. If they will only continue their good work and do the same by the B. of Q. R'y, at Deseronto, the community may not be so harsh in their expressions concerning the companies' present action.

SHIPYARD.—Mr. Wm. Evans, foreman of the shipyard, is busily engaged in launching a fine new tug for Messrs. E. B. Gilbert & Son, of Montreal. It is intended for use on their contract work for deepening the rapids of the St. Lawrence, and every part of the new vessel is to be taken out here and shipped by rail to some point on the St. Lawrence, where it will be put together.

LOST.—During the progress of the blizzard last week some of the teams engaged in drawing wood from the other side of the bay got lost on the ice, and as it was impossible to see towards ahead, they wandered about for several hours before they could make the village. The storm which can fool in such a manner with veterans like Herbert Rathbun and C. Dryden may well be termed a snifter.

THANKS.—Last Saturday evening the whole staff of THE TRIBUNE office, accepting the kind invitation of Mr. R. Geddis, proceeded to his restaurant, where they were regaled by the genial proprietor with a bountiful supply of oysters served in the best style. The Tribune takes this opportunity of thanking Mr. Geddis, for so thoughtfully remembering it at the beginning of the year, and trusts that he may, during 1884, receive an increased amount of public patronage.

FIRE.—A fire occurred last Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Jas. Butler in the east end. Mrs. Butler having lit a fire in the parlor, had occasion to visit a neighbor's, and during her absence a spark had by some means set fire to the room. Fortunately, however, Mr. Butler arrived home in time to discover the fire before it had made great headway, and having given the alarm, neighbors and hands from the mill succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before damage had been done to furniture and the building to the amount of $100.

Now for a January thaw.

We are glad to hear from our new correspondent at Macdonald.

Our old correspondents are placing THE TRIBUNE under renewed obligations by their excellent contributions to its columns.

We regret to learn that Mr. G. H. M. Baker lost, considerable of his personal effects by the Campbellford fire, at which he distinguished himself in his efforts to render assistance.

The average villager was kept very busy last week keeping the board-walk clear of snow, but it is observed that many make no attempt whatever to remove the snow opposite their residences. THE TRIBUNE may find itself compelled to publish monthly a list of delinquents.

THE Rev. Henry Thomas, of Bridge-water, will preach the anniversary sermon in behalf of the Missionary Society of the C. M. Church, next Sunday Evening, in the brick church. The annual meeting will be held in the same place on the Monday evening following, when an able deputation will address the meeting on the great Missionary theme.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The congregation of the Church of the Redeemer will commemorate the anniversary of the opening of the Missionary Society by holding special services on Sabbath, January 20th. The Rev. Dr. Cochrane, who, it will be remembered, preached with such acceptance at the opening of the church, will conduct the services on this occasion and preach both morning and evening.

OBITUARY.—Intelligence arrived this week of the death, in Massachusetts, of Mr. John A. Wilson, who may be remembered by many of the older residents as a young lad in the village, clerk, and finally promoted by the Messrs. Rathbun to the position of manager of the Big Store. After leaving Deseronto he studied law in Albany, N.Y., where he afterwards delivered an eloquent eulogy on the death of an eminent jurist. A short time ago he composed and published a volume of poetry which gave evidence of high poetic talent.

L. O. A.—District Lodge No. 4, L. O. A., met in the Orange Hall on Tuesday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year, viz:

Bro. Macfarlane, D. M.
" J. Pagan, D. D. M.
" Wm. Storr, Secretary
" W. Martin, Treasurer
" Jas. Cameron, D. of C.
" E. Storr, Chaplain.

Bro. J. Dunning was also elected as one of the reserves to the Prov. Grand Lodge. The brethren had a pleasant meeting, and the reports show the Order in a prosperous condition in this district.

SNOW SHOE CLUBS.—The Greenbank Snow-shoe Club was the first to make tracks this year, the members having a pleasant tramp to Bay View Farm last Friday afternoon. The Deseronto Club had its first march out on Saturday evening, taking the old and favourite route along the boundary road, whose frequent undulations afford an endless amount of fun. On returning to town the whole company of tramps betook themselves to Geddis' restaurant, where with whetted appetites that even surprised the proprietor, they did justice to a large quantity of the luscious bivalves.

LECTURE.—The Ladies' Aid Society, taking advantage of Rev. Dr. Cochrane's presence at the anniversary services of the Church of the Redeemer, have engaged him to deliver his famous lecture, "Through the Rockies," including a peep at Salt Lake City, in the Union Sabbath School Room, on Monday evening, January 21st. The lecture has been frequently delivered in leading towns of Western Ontario, and highly commended for its eloquence and power. This should attract a large audience and it would be well to immediately purchase tickets which are placed at the low figure of 15 cts.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.—The Public School reopened last Thursday, after their Christmas vacation. The new teachers engaged by the Board also entered on their duties. Miss Mayhew, of Belleville, assuming charge of the third department, and Miss Richards, of the same city, taking the fourth. The attention of THE TRIBUNE has been directed to some defects in the ventilating apparatus which does not work very well. The rooms, it seems, are heated by the expensive and old-fashioned system of naked stoves with an endless amount of stove-pipe which radiates a fierce heat on the heads of the pupils, besides rendering the atmosphere oppressive and unhealthy. By all means send an expert to remedy existing defects.

Go to Egar's for ointments and liniments to cure frost bites, salt-rheum and any pain or ache.

A RATEPAYER wants to know who is going to pay the Rathbun Co. for driving their teams around the streets to break the roads. He thinks that it is a question the grand jury should answer, and that people should be made clear the snow from before their property and that for their own sakes one would think they would be glad to do so.

STORMY WEATHER.—The storm of last week is considered one of the worst which have occurred in the Province for many years, and served the purpose of giving an idea of a North West blizzard. The snow fall was excessive, about twelve inches having fallen on the level, and as it blew a gale the drifts were very high in many places. Fortunately the temperature during the storm was comparatively high, thus modifying its severity. Railway travel on the Grand Trunk and all other lines was greatly impeded; this was especially the case with lines running north and south, the greater number of which were blocked up. The Bay of Quinte R'y made a gallant fight, but had to succumb on Tuesday night, thus missing a trip or two. The Picton stage had a hard time to get through, and travellers report blockades in all directions. Another storm set in on Tuesday forenoon from the south-east and continued all that day and through the night until yesterday afternoon. A large quantity of snow has fallen, much more than during the first storm. Trains and stages are again impeded, and locomotion of all kinds generally suspended. Fully eighteen inches have fallen on the level.

DESCRONT MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.—A number of citizens, chiefly young men, assembled at THE TRIBUNE office last Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a literary society. Mr. Wm. Stoddard was called to the chair, and W. B. Young appointed secretary of the meeting. The chairman having stated the purpose of the meeting, it was determined to proceed at once with the work of organization, and on motion it was resolved the new society should be called "The Deseronto Mutual Improvement Society." The following officers were elected and committees appointed, viz:—S. Russell, President; J. Malia, Vice-President; W. B. Young, Secretary; F. C. Whitton, Treasurer; G. A. Hodgkinson, M. Macklin, P. Wims, and Wm. Stoddard, Managing Committee. After discussion of several questions in connection with the future management of the Society, the meeting adjourned to meet in the town hall on Tuesday evening, 8th inst. The adjourned meeting was held in the town hall Tuesday night, when in spite of the raging storm, there was a good attendance of the members and invited citizens. The President having delivered a brief address, letters of apology were read from Revs. I. O. Mallory and Craig, and T. H. Nasmith, Esq., regretting their inability to be present, and wishing the new society all success. Stirring addresses were delivered, and several important questions discussed. We trust that this new society may have a much longer life than previous institutions have had in Deseronto.

PERSONAL.

Miss Florence Conley has been visiting friends in Stirling.

Mr. Jas. Scantlon, of Enterprises, paid us a pleasant visit on Monday.

W. C. B. Rathbun departed on Monday to resume his studies at Easthampton, Mass.

We regret to learn that Mr. R. H. Baker, town councillor, is suffering from an attack of fever.

Mr. E. C. French has been on the retired list during the past week as the result of a severe cold.

Mr. C. E. Hubbards as travelling agent of the Deseronto Flour Mills during Mr. Baker's illness.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Mallory, wife of the pastor of the M. E. Church, has been indisposed during the past week.

Mr. Jas. A. Davis is on a visit to Montreal, to make arrangements for some new machinery for the engine room of the Stone Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fritz, of Dresden, have been spending the New Year holidays very pleasantly in Deseronto, with Mr. Donald Solmes, Mrs. Fretz's brother.

Mr. Geo. A. Simpson, Gov't Engineer, accompanied by his wife, arrived from Ft. Edmonton, N. W. T., last Saturday and spent a couple of days in Deseronto as guests of Mr. W. A. Gilmour.

DEATHS.

HEGGARTY.—At Deseronto, January 3rd, David Heggarty, beloved wife of Mr. John Heggarty, aged 23 years and 6 months.

DAY.—On the 7th inst., at the Methodist Parsonage, Shannonville, Emily Day, relict of the late Alanson Day, of the Township of Portland, and mother-in-law to the Rev. J. C. Ash, aged 72 years and 6 months.

A locomotive on the New York and New Haven Railroad exploded killing both the engineer and fireman.

Twelve thousand employees in the different collieries of Northumberland county, Penn., are temporarily out of work.

A son of Congressman Whiting, a student at Williston Seminary, has been fined $50 for breaking a fellow student's nose.

By mutual consent, the wages of the men in the glass bottle making at Sunderland, Reg., have been reduced 25 per cent.

The majority of leading New York coal companies have agreed to cut down production one half from January 1 to April 1.

President Arthur was presented with six gold-headed canes on Christmas Day, and a number of umbrellas with gold and silver handles.

The coal mines in Monongahalia Valley, Pa., have all been closed. Seventy-five mines are involved and 6,000 men thrown out of work.

It is said that Mexico will not only soon cease to import petroleum from the United States, but become an extensive exporter of the article.

A Boston paper says that the Sunday before Christmas was the coldest day in the coldest day in that city on record for the last seventeen years.

George Bancroft the great American historian is credited with this observation: "A very dry Autumn has been succeeded by a rather warm and open winter."

A cage containing a number of convict laborers fell 204 feet in a mine at Birmingham, Ala., recently, killing and wounding nearly all its occupants.

It is alleged in New York that Villard has lost five millions by the depreciation of his stocks, and that his magnificent Madison Avenue place and Hudson River lands.

Delegations of influential property owners in Chicago have repeatedly asked Mayor Harrison to discontinue the practice of the gamblers whose places are either on or near their lands.

A Pittsburgh, Pa., dispatch says that the suspension of work at the Carnegie works of the west, which went into effect on Saturday night, threw 15,000 men out of employment for six weeks.

A New York Irishman has returned his naturalization papers and sprang American citizenship because the United States Government did not interfere to save O'Donnell from the gallows.

Quite a number of seals were seen floating on the ice near New York harbor recently. Some of the papers are quite humorous about walrus jackets appearing so plentiful at that particular time.

During the past year 21,000,000 bushels of wheat, 25,000,000 bushels of corn, 5,000,000 bushels of rye, and 157,000 bushels of oats were exported from New York, but not one American vessel cleared for Europe with grain.

The lumbermen on the Panobscot River are now about all in the woods. The stock cut will be largely made up of spruce, and the effort made to get as much of the timber that was blown down in the late torrids as possible.

A caterer in Buffalo, N. Y., cooks angelic worms. He feeds them milk for a few days, dusts them with flour, and drops them into a pan of boiling oil or fat. They are served in drawn butter, with a little lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce.

The stables of the Street Railway Company at Syracuse, N. Y., were burned. Twenty-four horses were burned to death, and every street car in the city was consumed together with a large stock of provender.

P. T. Barnum's will, which has been announced prior to the great showman's death, in order to prevent any litigation after his decease, provides for a large gratuity to the estate and personal property of the value of $10,000,000 among 27 heirs.

In consequence of the washing away of a bridge over the River at Louisville, near New Albany & Chicago Railroad, near Salep, Indiana, recently a train ran into the washout, killing seven and injuring 160 persons.

The executive committee of the colored men's convention have reported a memorial praying Congress to reimburse the unfortunate Freedmen's Bank depositors, on the ground that in winding up the affairs of that concern, the law of insolvency was violated.

New York—At a meeting of Irishmen in Brooklyn Sunday night the use of dynamite was favored by O'Donnovan Rossa and Robert Ellsworth. The latter stated that Irish Crusaders' Club had been formed, and they expected soon to have 100,000 members.

San Francisco—A ceremony representing the funeral of O'Donnell, recently hanged at London, took place here Sunday. Efforts were made to make a grand demonstration, but the board of supervisors and the prominent Irish organizations declined to take part and only 300 persons were in line.

A very serious riot occurred in the city of Mexico over the introduction of the new nickel cents, which the lower classes did not take very kindly. The tumultuously resulted in a panic that nearly killed the city for a time, smashing windows and committing other crimes. The military was called out, and finally quelled the riot.

The press is now the well acknowledged power in the community. Not long ago a German newspaper called attention to the fact that many apothecary shops were needed in Berlin, and within two weeks steps had been taken for the establishment of nineteen new ones. Probably near all their stocks on hand will be drawn to them hereafter.

The convicts at the Massachusetts State Prison were granted the usual privileges and something more on Christmas Day, and two men were convicted of manslaughter. One was John John Noyes who was serving a life term for the murder of his sweetheart in 1877, and the other, George H. Richardson, of Carleton, who was convicted one year ago, of murder in the second degree, for shooting his father. It is said that evidences have come to light which tend to show that the shooting was accidental.

A Philadelphia dispatch says:—A slight improvement in the tone of the iron market has been developed in the close of the year. Prices have reached their lowest limit and careful buyers have taken advantage of special prices for foundry and forge iron. There are enquiries for large lots of steel rails at $35 per ton, and makers' prices are at a discount at that figure. The Western mills are now booking orders. At Pittsburgh negotiations are in hand for large lots of steel rails and moderate sized lots of railway material, for delivery during January and February.

Among the many reasons given for the divorce in Maryland the District Pree Press relates the following:—"A young woman in that State has brought suit to annul her marriage on the ground that her husband is a mulatto, while she is white. The marriage took place in 1879, and it was not until a year later that the wife discovered the truth. She is now suing for divorce. The husband claims that he used any deception. It simply did not occur to her to suspect that he was not white, and she is now claiming to have a tincture of his nephew, whose more unmistakable traces of negro ancestry. It will be difficult for most intelligent people to understand why a young woman has any grievance, but in this respect she does not differ from a good many women who sue for divorce."

GRANT BROTHERS.

Three baronets and a peer, Lord St. Leonards, grandson of the eminent Chancellor, have recently helped to swell the list of bankrupts in England.

A parliamentary return just issued shows that the total taxation of Ireland in 1882 produced a sum of £3,324,679 which was an increase of £143,249, or 4.4 per cent., on the amount levied in the previous year.

Recently published judicial statistics show that 447 of the requests held in England and Wales in 1880 resulted in a verdict of acquittal from the jury. This is 29 more than in the previous year, but it is below the average (430) for five preceding years.

Lord Lorne's attempts to acclimatize the Canadian moss-deer at Inverness, Scotland, have failed, the climate being apparently too moist, but the Canadian musk rats and the American muskrat are doing well, and the wild things are flourishing.

The London Times says that the continued depression in trade is a puzzle to the community. The revival of 1879 was temporary, and merchants now complain that their profits have either disappeared altogether or are extremely small, while great industries are indefinitely in distress, and the whole of the real property market is merely the speculative trade which is depressed. The hand to mouth trade is fully maintained, but the chief cause of the depression is the writer thinks, is to be found in the series of bad harvests.

The violence of language used by some of the leading Irish agitators of to-day may be believed to be connected in connection with the prohibition of a recent Nationalists meeting near Dublin. A proclamation from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland was read to the assembly, and Mr. James M. Maguire, P. M., who was to address it, drove off when he saw the proclamation. As a dinner the same evening Biggar, in referring to Webster, said: "I have read the proclamation, and I have seen the result. I have seen how Sir Spencer obtained the title to his property but unless some church robber amasses it years ago he would probably at the present day be a drunken housebreaker."

History of a Song.

Mr. Bennett, a music-writer, and Mr. Webster, a poet, were friends. The latter was subject to melancholy.

He came in to where his friend Webster was at business one day, while in a depression of spirits.

"What is the matter now?" said Bennett, noticing his countenance.

"No matter," said Webster; "I will be right by-and-by."

"Yes; that's what you say," said Bennett. "Would not that sentiment make a good hymn, Webster?"

"May I?" said Webster, replied Webster, indifferently.

Turning to his desk, Bennett wrote the three verses of the hymn, and handed them to Webster. Webster read them with a smile, and then he changed. Stepping to his desk, he began to write the notes.

Having finished them he requested his violin, and played the melody. In a few minutes he had the four parts of the chorus jotted down. It was not over thirty minutes that he had thought of the hymn before the two friends, and two others who had come in in the meantime, were singing all the parts together.

A bystander who had been attracted by the music, and had listened in tearful silence, remarked, "That hymn is immortal."

It is now sung in every land under the sun.

Glasgow's Commercial Importance.

Many readers will be surprised to learn that Glasgow is the second largest city in Great Britain, and the third in commercial importance. In population and manufacturing it almost equals Philadelphia, and for wealth it is only second to New York. It is large or small, with which I am acquainted. The people are busy, thrifty, industrious and exceedingly polite, intensely national, but absolutely ignorant and indifferent to all about America and American affairs. I have not met any person so ignorant as the Glasgow people who are so much more than the account of the Indiana; but they do not seem to know or care that in the vicinity of Glasgow is the most important and populous and thriving village of Baltimore.

Glasgow claims to have the largest locomotive works in the world. The six-story building yards extend along the Clyde twenty miles to Greenock, presenting a scene of colossal industry that astonishes even the most experienced traveler. The Glasgow Cathedral is one of the most ancient and interesting churches in Great Britain. The present structure was built in 1124, and is in a good state of preservation. The University of Glasgow made it a prominent place, even when the population was quite small.

A Minnesota Tornado.

The Norwegian poet and preacher Kristofer Jansen gives the following account of a tornado which visited his country on the 10th of August:—"We had built two wings on the church, you know, as a summer resort for me and my wife, and the church itself was not yet finished, the doors and windows not put in, and the carpenters and joiners busy at their work when the misfortune happened. The water had been turbulent for many days, every night lightning and thundering with violent showers. It was on the morning of the 10th. We had just taken our breakfast, and had gathered out on the porch to look at the grand play of the elements performed before our eyes. A cloud in the horizon flashed lightning, and it thickened and darkened more and more. We foresaw a violent tempest. It seemed as if the storm moved away in the direction of New Ulm, and we wondered if that poor town should be drowned to death for the second time. It was swept away by a cyclone two years ago, you remember. A cloud, black as the raven's wing, appeared in the west. Suddenly it split, and between the two black trains expanded the most fearful, dismal sky I ever saw. The color was green—gray—yellow, and the light was like a blinding fire. It was as if a giant had been let loose, and he was gathering together with us on the porch. This must be a great storm, one of our kind said; 'you will never hear of this again.' Suddenly the cleft widened between the two black cloud-wings, and the upper one came down like a giant's foot, and heaved toward us. 'Let us walk in,' I said. 'It seems as if we, too, shall get a taste of it.' We went in, and one parlor looked out on the storm. The storm was not far from us. In a moment we were surrounded by a white cloud, and the upper one came down like a giant's foot, and heaved toward us. 'Let us walk in,' I said. 'It seems as if we, too, shall get a taste of it.' We went in, and one parlor looked out on the storm. The storm was not far from us. # The Tribune.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1884.

In consequence of the stormy weather and bad roads, the meeting summoned to be held last Thursday at Adolphstown, to consider the best mode of celebrating the landing of the U. E. Loyalists, was necessarily adjourned. It was found impossible to reach the town-hall on account of the snow blockade, and the few residents of the village who turned out on the occasion had to meet elsewhere. Dr. W. Allison was elected chairman of the meeting, and on motion it was resolved to adjourn until Wednesday the 23rd inst.

The Cornwall News says that the Cornwall township Council is a unit in favor of manhood suffrage, and that the council will petition the Ontario Legislature to grant the franchise to every man over twenty-one years of age who is a citizen of Canada. It is gratifying to see this movement spreading, and we hope that the town council of Deseronto will also be found forwarding a similar petition, and at the same time demanding the removal of all property qualifications for councillors and members of the Legislature. In this village there are probably more than two hundred young men and other respectable citizens, many of whom are paying taxes, who have no voice in the management of municipal affairs and who are not allowed to vote for members for the Provincial Legislature or the House of Commons. This is the result of clinging to the exploded theory, that the man who owns a certain amount of real estate and personal property, is the man who pays all the taxes. It is fast dawning on the minds of all that this old idea like many others must go, and that there must be an extension of the suffrage. As Mr. Gladstone stated not long since, every such extension in Britain has added to the stability of the throne and has proved, of incalculable benefit to the state.

It is evident from the number of inquiries for farm property in this section, that the rash of emigration to the North West, which was leading so many to sell their farms in Ontario, and reinvest their means in Manitoba, has subsided. Farmers are learning that the advantages of schools, churches, markets and steadiness of climate, enjoyed in this Province, outweigh all the attractions which the new territories afford. While referring to this fact, we may state that the probable early establishment of a vicar ferry between Deseronto and the opposite shores of Fredericksburg and Prince Edward, will not only improve the business interests of Deseronto, but will, at the same time add largely to the desirableness and value of the farms in the districts, which will be effected by the proposed accommodation. There is no investment that would secure a more speedy and profitable return than the expenditure of a little time and money to secure the early establishment of such a ferry. That is evident from the number who now make use of the ice-bridge to do their trading in this village. It is quite unnecessary to refer to the advantages which Deseronto with its hundreds of industrious workmen, offers as a good and convenient market for all the products of the farm. The increasing number of stores, business establishments, and manufacturing industries centred here, all afford an ample and varied assortment of commodities for which farmers can exchange their produce, and on terms even more favorable than other towns profess to offer.

The second session of the present Dominion Parliament opens to-day. Lord Lansdowne in the presence of all the wealth and beauty of the Civil Service of Ottawa will read his first speech from the throne in the Senate Room, and for the remainder of the session discharge his duties by dispensing the hospitalities of Rideau Hall to venerable legislators and their wives and friends. The press of Canada show their estimate of the value and importance of the Senate either by refusing to encumber their columns with an account of its proceedings or by dismissing them with a few sentences. Our House of Lords will however as in the past meet daily, go through the formality of opening and adjourning, and at the end of the session, each senator will, without fail, draw his yearly indemnity and seasonal allowances. Public interest in Canada, as well as in England centres on the House of Commons, in which the debates promise to be lively and exciting. The present depression in trade will be made, the grounds of an attack upon the N. P. by the opposition, and the changes will again be rung on the old watchwords, protection and revenue tariff. The Boundary Award will afford a theme for an endless amount of rallery on the part of government supporters, which will draw from their opponents sarcastic allusions to the License Act and North West land regulations. There will be a determined effort made to get at the true inwardness of the Government's action in guaranteeing the interest on the Syndicate's bonds, and all the fiery eloquence of the Minister of Railways will be required to meet the onslaught on his railway policy. We trust that the Government will again introduce the measure for the extension of the franchise, which, though it may not go far enough is certainly a move in the right direction. It would be a great surprise if the Government should propose some changes in the constitution of the Senate. The premier, as is well known, always follows the lead of public opinion, who he but hequely interprets. He is frequently compared to Beaconsfield, and following his example, he may anticipate the leader of the opposition by bringing in a bill for Senate reform. As the Government have a majority of two to one in the House they are certain to carry any measure whose passage they may seriously deem necessary.

Andrew Howe, Esq. of Meaford, says he was entirely relieved of indigestion by using Crofoot Bitters.

CORRESPONDENCE. PROFANE LANGUAGE.

To the Editor of The Tribune.
DEAR SIR,—The Big Store should not allow any discredit to be cast on the establishment, by permitting their delivery sleigh to be driven by any lad using such shocking indecent and terribly profane language as was used by the one driving it last Saturday afternoon. Such language, hawled on the public street, within the hearing of persons in all directions, is certainly a discredit to the village. Why don't the Chief make an example of some of those using such language, and thus put a stop to it?

Yours truly,
A CITIZEN.

AMUSEMENTS.

To the Editor of The Tribune.
MR. EDITOR,—What are the young men of our enterprising town about? They complain of the lack of amusement in the place. Who is to blame for it? Why, no one in the world but those self same grumblers. We have a good skating rink, and there is excellent sleighing and snow-shoeing. Why don't they rouse up and make amusements for themselves and lady friends? Form a snow shoe club and invite the ladies to join. Not do as they did one night last week, sneak selfishly away by themselves for a "tramp" and leave the girls at home. If true happiness consists in making others happy, then I don't think they deserved to enjoy themselves, do you Mr. Editor? A good pleasure sleigh can be hired for a moderate sum of money, and what greater pleasure can you find than a well filled sleigh of jolly young folks, drawn by a spirited team of horses, skimming along over the frozen snow by the cheery light of the moon, and it wouldn't cost them a cent more than their cigars and— I went say what else—for the night. If I were only a little younger, I believe I'd be tempted to take a turn at it myself—the sleigh drive, I mean, not the cigars and— But old age overtakes us all, Mr. Editor, and all I can do is to point out to the boys the folly of letting all this fun slip. By and by they will be sorry they did not take advantage of it while it was going, for it is surprising how fast a man grows old. Come boys, don't be so selfish, come forth from your bachelor dens and be more sociable. There is lots of fun if you will only seek it.

EDWARD.

Are you a martyr to Sick Headache? Do you feel miserable after eating? Does your stomach feel sour continually? Then use Crofoot Bitters, the greatest tonic for the stomach of the age.

TESTIMONIALS.
Rev. R. Large Says: Being for some time afflicted with Dyspepsia, and finding my health greatly improved by only a little of the Crofoot Bitters, I am pleased to recommend it to those in like manner afflicted.

R. LARGE,
Minister of the M. E. Church, Meaford, Ont.
A St. Vincent Farmer Says: This is to certify that I have used the Crofoot Indian Bitters, and can recommend it as a first-class medicine for the blood. Was very bad with Dyspepsia for ten years. After using the above Bitters I could eat anything I wished without feeling any discomfort after, and feel thankful for the good health I am enjoying through them.

Yours, etc., SAMUEL ELYKA,

The snow has blocked the roads to such an extent in this vicinity that the mail carrier, Mr. James Parks, has been unable to get through with the mail.

Mr. H. E. Parks, of Deseronto, is visiting at the residence of N. B. Miller, Esq., renewing acquaintances and attending parties.

Mr. David Richardson came home from Napanea on Saturday last for a short visit.

Miss Connors, the popular school teacher, has been re-appointed for another year.

Reverial services are to commence at Bethany church as soon as the roads get navigable.

School Section No. 11 wish to hire a female teacher. We hope they will secure one good looking and about sparkling age.

The township election here was rather gritty, electing three reformers out of five.

Two loads, one from Hay Bay and one from Macdonald, met a few from the village at the residence of E. McCabe, Deseronto.

Two of the young men from Hay Bay had to shovel snow all the previous afternoon in order that they might get there. They arrived, however, in due time, where a pleasant evening was spent. The parties leaving for home about 3 o'clock the next morning.

GREEN POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

J. J. Pralick is about purchasing a farm from Philip Roblin, Esq.

We are glad to see our old friend, W. Dewitt, able to attend to his work again. Nearly all the schools in this township were closed last week, roads being impassable.

Mr. Edward Doney, one of Sophiasburgh's most successful farmers, was buried last week.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. W. Doolittle, son-in-law and daughter of Thomas Carman, left for Chicago, where Mr. Doolittle resides.

On Tuesday of last week a young Mr. Simmons, who lately came into this neighborhood, died. The neighbors bought a coffin and conveyed the remains to Adolphus.

Our January thaw on Sunday soon from up, but we feel thankful for small favors for the roads have been impassable. Last week was spent in shovelling roads, repairing broken down stage sleighs, and looking round to guide the weary traveller.

Robert Wadsworth was completely snowed in one morning last week; when he got up a bank of snow and ice and roads were completely blocked. He must have turned Santa Claus and ascended the chimney, for about noon he was seen in the centre of the road swinging a shovel and calling for assistance.

TRENTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The winter races on the ice are set down for the 16th and 17th inst. and the determination is that no liquor shall be permitted to be sold on the scene of contest.

Dr. Rodgers a graduate of Queen's College has joined the number of those who are practicing the healing art in Trenton and has fitted up a most commodious and elegant surgery in the old postoffice building.

The fancy dress ball to which so many of the fair have been looking forward anxiously is being held this evening, and doubtless the storm raging without will be a good excuse for not going home till morning and "on with the dance" will be the order of the night.

The lovers of the "roarin' game" have succeeded in getting a good flooring office in their commodious rink and are looking forward to friendly competition with their brethren in Belleville and elsewhere. An open air skating rink has been started but the frequent snow storms of late have interfered considerably with the success of the project.

Although Trenton is already pretty well supplied with horse, we are to have at least a couple more added to the number; the more necessary for the Blue Ribbon movement to be prosecuted vigorously. Meetings in connection with this temperance agency are held monthly in the town hall, and already there are some 400 or 500 names on the roll.

The C. M. Church social advertised for last Thursday was postponed on account of the weather until this Tuesday evening, but the severe storm prevented all but the most enthusiastic from attending to-night. A further attempt to entertain the public is to be made on Monday next. The same storm has completely blocked the Ontario Central there being no train from Pleton to-day.

The Municipal elections passed off quietly. There was a keen contest between Messrs. Murphy and Richardson for the Mayoralty resulting in the election of the latter by the handsome majority of 162. For councillors there was a contest in the Centre and East wards, but for the West a return by acclamation. The following is the Council for 1884: Mayor Richardson, with Messrs. O. H. Bonter, Jas. Simpson, S. Bonter, Jas. Orr, John Belch, Chas. Findall, P. O'Rourke, S. Young and H. Meyers. The three latter are new members and represent respectively the three wards.

Another Victory.

A startling and important discovery was made when, after long and patient experiments, the combination of Nerviline was reached. A grand victory indeed, for the suffering have an ever ready, prompt, efficient, and cheap remedy at hand. Do you know that for 10 cents you can buy a trial bottle of Polson's Nerviline and test its great power over pain of every description? Polson's Nerviline cures chills, pain in the stomach, side, and back, rheumatism in fact all pain. Sold by Eggar.

Laugh and Get Well.

In the treatise on laughter Joubert gives a curious instance. A patient, being new with fever, and the physician in attendance being at a loss as to how he should produce reaction had ordered a dose of rhubarb, but after the medicine had been prepared, fearing its debilitating effects, the order was countermanded. Not long after a pet monkey belonging to the patient that had been in the room all the while, seeing the goblet, slipped slyly up and touched it to his lips. The first taste was probably novel and he made a comical grimace. Another sip and he got the sweet of the rhubarb. Ah! His vision brightened. He casts a glance around, and then drank it to the bottom, where he got the full strength of the rhubarb. Mercy! What a face he made! The visage of the disgusted monkey spoke volumes as he tried to spit out the horrible taste, but finding that impossible, he seized the goblet and hurled it to the floor, smashing it into a hundred pieces. The scene was so ludicrous that the sick man burst into a fit of laughter that lasted until his nurse came in. And when he tried to rise will be all in vain if you don't advertise. The world is full of advertising, yet everyone wants to know what is new. The world's memory is short. It will forget if you do not jog it frequently. Early to bed and early to rise will be all in vain if you don't advertise. The world is sure to find out an honest man, but it will find him out a great deal quicker if he advertises.

The Time To Advertise.

To cure dull times—apply an advertisement to the afflicted part. A sign board can't tell everything. It takes an advertisement to get rich, but precious few get rich without it. The world is full of advertising, yet everyone wants to know what is new. The world's memory is short. It will forget if you do not jog it frequently. Early to bed and early to rise will be all in vain if you don't advertise. The world is sure to find out an honest man, but it will find him out a great deal quicker if he advertises.

Can't Be Better.

It is a fact that Nerviline cannot be surpassed by any combination for the relief of pain. The reason is a good one. Nerviline contains the best, most powerful, and the latest discovery remedies. It is a magic pain cure. Rheumatism, stiff neck, cramps, neuralgia, colic, in fact all pain, internal, external, and local, are subdued in a few minutes. Go at once to Eggar's drug store and get a trial bottle. It will only cost you 10 cents, and you can at a small cost test the great pain cure, Polson's Nerviline. Large bottles only 25 cts.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1884.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

LECTURES.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

SELFISH young men.

HAVE you purchased a ticket.

Get your visiting cards neatly printed at THE TRIBUNE office.

It is said there is a very good opening for a skilful dentist in Deseronto.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. James Baird met with a serious accident the other day, having fallen through a trap door into the cellar.

STARTED AFIRE.—The Sash and Door factory started afire last night after midnight, having been shut down for a few weeks to secure increased power.

MR. ROBT. GRENDS has received a fresh supply of those fine oysters, and has also on hand a large stock of good apples and groceries. Be sure to give him a call.

SUNNY SOUTH.—Mr. Herbert Foster, formerly on THE TRIBUNE staff, has gone to Georgia to spend a few months there for the benefit of his health. We trust that he will return greatly strengthened by his visit to the sunny South.

LARGE FIGURES.—The Grand Trunk requires on an average the immense number of one million ties annually for renewals alone. This is equivalent to forty million feet of lumber, and means a very large outlay in many sections of Canada.

ONE of our reporters was charmed with the gallantry displayed by our Kingston correspondent at Kingston Station the other day, but what else could be expected from a young man who has commenced the year with so many good resolutions.

CONVENIENT.—A constantly increasing number of farmers from the back part of Tyendinaga and other townships now take the trains of the Grand Trunk at Deseronto Junction, it being the only point at which several of the trains stop between Napanee and Belleville.

MORE POWER.—Arrangements have been completed for improving the furnaces and boilers of the steamer Puritan which runs on the Thousand Islands route, between Gananoque and Clayton. This will give her increased power, and thus enable her to make better time than heretofore.

THE clergymen of Kingston affirm that the press of that city frequently oversteps the bounds of propriety and that it is lacking in moral tone and character. We can now easily understand why THE TRIBUNE has such a large circulation among the respectable classes of the Limestone city.

SNOW SUITS.—The various snow-shoe clubs have had a good time lately, the beautiful moonlight nights and the well packed snow banks, raised by the late storms, being alike favourable for this healthy exercise. We presume our local clubs will be properly represented at the great Montreal carnival.

NOT OFFER.—It is not often that the lawyer meets his match, but old Boreas proved to much for him last week, Mr. H. R. Bedford being snow-bound at the junction for a couple of days; and Mr. Irvine, while plodding along the track, was almost buried by the drift from a passing train.

THE inhabitants of this village are all ready to contend that there is no better place than Deseronto in which to live happily and die peacefully, but none would like their last resting place to be in its vicinity—they would rather have their honoured dust carried elsewhere. Outsiders might argue from this a lack of confidence in the future growth and progress of the town.

FLORAL.—The conservatory of E. W. Rathbun, Esq., is now presenting a remarkably fine appearance, there being a rich display of rare and beautiful flowers, including some fine Dutch bulbs. Mr. S. Croft, the gardener, will be very happy to show visitors around every Monday afternoon between 2 and 4 o'clock, an opportunity of which many will, no doubt, avail themselves.

FARMERS are having a good time breaking roads.

A few more Remnants at the Big Store to be sold at a sacrifice.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The number of pupils enrolled in the General Register of Deseronto School for the year 1883, is 476.

THE Napanee Express very kindly acknowledges many items of railway and other intelligence borrowed from our columns.

The Great Deseronto Sale still continues at the Big Store. Special bargains this week in Winces, Flannels and Hosiery.

The members of Daniel's Band come out this week replet with new badges, on which are neatly printed the name of the new society.

Go to the Big Store for Teas, Sugars, Canned Goods, Fruits, Tobaccoes, Conies and General Groceries. Large assortment and low prices.

CHIEF GUNTOT did good service with the snow-shovel last week, assisting to remove the blockade on Mill street, and clearing away the snow from the water-tanks.

ANNIVERSARY services will be held in the Church of the Redeemer next Sunday at the usual hours of worship, the Rev. Dr. Cochran preaching both morning and evening.

We gladly welcome the contribution of "Daisy Drew" to the columns of THE TRIBUNE, hoping that we may receive many similar favors from the pen of this talented writer.

PLEASANT PARTY.—Miss Annie Kiemerly gave a very pleasant social party last Friday evening, at which the large number of young people invited enjoyed themselves exceedingly.

THE CHIEFTAIN.—A photograph of the Premier, said to be the best yet taken, may be seen at THE TRIBUNE office. It represents him sitting in the new fur coat lately presented to him by friends in Quebec.

It is proposed to hold a monster gathering of Oddfellows next summer at some point near Alexandria Bay, at which all the Oddfellows of Eastern Ontario and many in northern New York will take part.

REMISE.—From all sides come reports that pathmasters have been remiss in their duties during the past two weeks. As a consequence travellers have been belated, stages delayed and traffic generally suspended.

AGAIN.—Mr. Chas. Dryden, while admiring the progress of a couple of G. T. engines and snowplough at the junction the other day, was almost buried by the avalanche of snow hurled on the platform as they passed by.

GRANITE.—There is a large quantity of granite taken out yearly at the islands between Gananoque and Clayton. Much of this is suitable for monuments and it is also cut into 6 in. blocks for paving purposes. A strong company has been formed for enlarged operations in this important industry.

SUCCESSFUL.—In the list of successful candidates at the recent examinations of the Ontario College of Pharmacy we observe that our young townsman Mr. Wm. H. Short takes first position in Pharmacy, obtaining 15.4 marks out of a possible 20, his name also appearing on the list of honor men. Mr. Short studied with Mr. Egar, whom as well as our young friend we congratulate on these gratifying results.

"EDWARD'S" letter will be perused by every reader of THE TRIBUNE, and all must admit that the charges advanced by the writer, though severe, are literally true. Selfishness is a strong word, but it appears to be the only one by which to correctly characterize the conduct of our young men who consider that by buying a solitary fifteen cent ticket now and then their duties as members of the social fabric are fulfilled.

ENTERTAINMENT.—An entertainment under the auspices of St. Mark's Church Literary Society will be held in Rathbun Hall, to-morrow evening (Friday), which will attract a large audience. In addition to the usual amount of readings, recitations, and vocal and instrumental music, a special attraction is held out to the public, by an exposure of Spiritualism by Mr. E. M. Roy, of Belleville. This will include spiritual seances, materialization of spirits, thought reading, and the wonderful reproduction of the famous "Rhodian Mystery." As there will be a big rush secure your tickets early; and with "Edward's" letter echoing in his ear, let every young man for once cast off his selfishness and bring a young lady along. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock, programme to commence at 8 sharp. Admission 15 cents.

PARTIES having farms for sale will find it unmistakably to their advantage to advertise in THE TRIBUNE.

This young man in the Central office who received half a dozen pen-wipers at Christmas, from as many different girls, is still seen wiping his pen on his coat-tail.

R. C. CHURCH.—There will be a service in the Roman Catholic Church next Sunday morning at 9 a.m., and Confession will also be heard at the same place next Saturday evening, 19th, at 8 o'clock.

The appeal of THE TRIBUNE produced good effects and the sidewalks have been well cleared of snow on nearly all the streets, very few failing to do their duty with the snow-shovel. Old residents admit that they have never before seen such banks of snow along our streets.

LECTURE.—We are requested to remind the readers of THE TRIBUNE of the lecture by Rev. Dr. Cochran in the Union Sabbath School Room, on Monday evening next, 21st inst. The subject is "Through the Rockies" which includes a peep at Salt Lake city, and visits to San Francisco, Leadville, British Columbia, &c. Many of our exchanges refer to it as being an intellectual treat, and an effort every way worthy of the eloquent author.

PROFANITY.—A citizen very properly calls attention to the prevalence of shocking profanity which is so very common in this as well as other villages. Mere boys can be heard at any time of the day, on any of our streets making use of indecent and profane language, regarding it as one of the evidences of manhood. Ladies complain that they cannot go into a shop or place where men congregate without having their ears assailed with foul oaths. It would be well for managers, foremen, and police to make an effort to suppress this increasing vice.

PRESENTATION.—The scholars of Miss Davenport's Division, on Monday morning, greeted the beginning of her week's work with a beautiful present, in the form of a very handsome, large Photograph Album, and also a very pretty Autograph Album. This spirit of appreciation of the efforts of one who has their best interests at heart and who does everything in her power for their intellectual improvement, is highly creditable to the pupils, and will not fail to be greatly prized by the recipient. The album was accompanied by the pictures of some of the scholars and by some pretty cards indicative of good will.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER.—The annual congregational meeting of the Church of the Redeemer, was held last Thursday evening in the lecture room of the Church. There was a good attendance and the proceedings were interesting and harmonious. Reports of the board of managers, Kirk-session, ladies' aid society, mission society, and Y. P. A., were read and adopted. Heartly votes of thanks were accorded to the ladies' aid and missionary association for their valuable assistance during the past year. The financial exhibit was considered satisfactory. The new board of managers were elected for the ensuing year and six trustees elected to hold church property for the next five years. It was resolved to memorialize the Kirk-session and other church courts with a view of effecting some change in the Psalms and Hymnals at present in use in the Church. Instead of the present division into five distinct parts, it is proposed to have them combined and numbered consecutively.

MUNICIPALITIES which have granted bonuses to local lines of railway, sometimes complain that neither directly nor indirectly do they receive any benefit for their expenditure. Many of these should admit that during a winter like the present, they do derive some return, as these lines are employing small armies of snow shovellers to keep their tracks clear from the frequent storms and the drifting snow. The expenditure by our local line in this way must be large, and the Central Ontario and Kingston & Pembroke must be at a great loss in their efforts to keep their lines open. We are surprised that the railway companies do not make use more largely of snow fences and sheds at the different cuts and exposed points. These would be found of great advantage, and would lessen, if they would not altogether remove, the possibility of blockades such as travellers are experiencing so much at present in Central Ontario. Although the employment of hundreds of men may appear to put more money in circulation, this apparent benefit is more than counter-balanced by the detention of passengers and freight and temporary paralysis of trade.

Don't forget the Christmas Tree at Christ Church (Reserve), this evening.

The comet has been distinctly visible to the naked eye several evenings during the past week.

THERE are several jumping-off places along the different board-walks, which sadly shake the vertebral column when the pedestrian unexpectedly lets himself down.

SOCIAL.—A very pleasant social party was held at the residence of Mr. George Hancock, Main st., on Monday night, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

NEW SOCIETY.—A meeting was held last night in the Town Hall, to take action in reference to the formation of a branch of the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

POSTPONED.—The stormy weather preventing the attendance of the delegates, the missionary meetings of the C. M. Church are necessarily postponed to a future date.

BIG WHEEL.—Mr. A. Ferguson arrived from Belleville yesterday with a large wheel for the Stone Mill. It weighs about three tons and was a good load for a team to bring such a distance over bad roads.

READ carefully the advertisement of Mr. G. W. Goodwin of Napanee. His reputation as a good workman is too widely known to need anything more to be said. Parties requiring harness, cannot do better than give him a call.

GRAND CARNIVAL.—There will be a Grand Carnival in the skating rink, on Thursday evening, 24th inst. Admission 10 cts.; those in costume free. It will be followed by a ball at the Ferguson House. Young people will please govern themselves accordingly.

THE WEATHER.—The great storm of last week was followed by clearing weather on Thursday and Friday, and some flurries of snow on Saturday. Four inches of snow fell on Sunday, turning to rain for a few moments in the evening. The wind however veering to the North-west, gave clear weather with low temperature, the thermometer reaching 19.5° below zero on Tuesday morning and 23° below about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, the lowest recorded here so far this year. Yesterday was milder and there appear indications of an approaching change. We may complain of the cold, but think of Chicago with 30°, Nebraska 35°, and Manitoba 53° below zero.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH.—The Rev. T. Stanton, B. A. of Barrfield, the newly appointed Rector, conducted the services at St. Mark's Church, last Lord's Day. At the close of the services, he read the Bishop's Pastoral appointing him Rector of St. Mark's Church, with all the rights and privileges pertaining to that position. Mr. Stanton informed the congregation that his Lordship the Bishop had requested him to take charge of Deseronto last spring, but that he had then refused to do so, as he was desirous that the Bishop and people should have the opportunity of obtaining if possible, the services of a new man. They had then been unable to do, and the Bishop meeting him in Kingston recently, had again repeated his desire, and begged him to accept the appointment. He had accepted it with some reluctance, but he hoped that things would now go on as pleasantly as they had been going under Mr. Hooper's care, and that he should receive the hearty assistance of the congregation in the discharge of his duties. We understand that Mr. Stanton will be ready to enter on the active duties of his new charge in a few weeks, and that he will be assisted by Mr. Hooper. The new Rector is well known to the people of Deseronto, having been for some time in charge of the Reserve, and THE TRIBUNE desires to congratulate him on the appointment and express the hope that the congregation under its new pastor, may enjoy an increased measure of prosperity.

TO THE PUBLIC.—We beg to announce to our patrons and the public generally, that we begin the year with the largest and most complete stock of Harness ever offered to the public (by any firm in Napanee), comprising all the complete and varied assortment of single and double carriage and team Harness. Horse clothing. Whips, Valises, Trunks, Collars, Halters, Lines, Girths, Sweat Collars and all the equipments of a first-class Harness Store. Our Collars have a world-wide reputation. Our Leather carried off first-prize tickets; no less than four tickets crowned our exhibit at our County shows in 1882-3. Come and be served with promptness and be assured that your every want will be supplied cheap for cash. Geo. N. Goodwin.

MAKING.—To be healthy—use Crowfoot Bitters. To be wealthy sell them. You will prove yourself wise by keeping them constantly in the house.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1884.

The election for the Local Legislature in South Renfrew, last week, resulted in the return of Dr. Dowling, the Reform candidate, by a large majority.

CANADIAN journalism has met with a great loss by the death, last week, of Mr. William Cameron, manager of the London Advertiser. Deceased was a man of sterling worth and most deservedly popular among all classes in the west.

An effort, which it is hoped may prove successful, is being made in the Senate of the United States to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the capitol. In this respect it would be well for the Dominion Parliament to imitate their cousins over the line. To the presence of the House of Commons is undoubtedly due many of those disgraceful scenes and speeches which the press find it so disagreeable to record.

The pertinacity with which the average citizen clings to the end of the pew next the aisle, in the different churches, must not be supposed to mean that he wishes to deny ingress to strangers. It is probably a habit which has come down from the early settlers, who attended worship side in hand, prepared for the sudden attack of Indians and who thus placed themselves in that position where they might most easily reach the door of the sacred edifice. Others, wrongly we hope, attribute it to a selfish desire on the part of the lord of creation to get a comfortable place on which to rest his elbow and thus support his head during the sermon. As there are no evident signs of hostilities between the village and our brethren on the Reserve, and as every man in Deseronto will repudiate such selfishness as is intimated above we expect to see more of a disposition to move on, and an opportunity afforded to wives, sisters, and visitors to enjoy their share of the comforts of church going.

A bill has been introduced into the house of representatives at Washington, having for its object the appropriation by the Federal Government of one million dollars to improve the Erie canal. It is claimed that the burden of maintaining this great work can no longer be borne by the State of New York alone, and that, as the whole country is benefitted by it, the National Government should bear its proportion of the cost of maintaining and improving the canal. The canal is now practically free, but the expenditure for maintenance and improvement at present, takes annually a million of dollars from the State treasury. Matters have changed greatly since the construction of the canal. Then it had no competitors, now six railway tracks run by its side from Lake Erie to the Hudson. Moreover the methods of canal navigation have not improved during the past sixty years and the locks on the Erie are just of the same size as when first constructed. Opponents of the new measure claim that it would be better to let the canal fall into disuse as the railways can now carry all the produce and freight of the west. If such a policy were adopted, we should see a combination formed and rates advanced, and every farmer of the west receiving a much less amount per bushel for his wheat and corn. It is probable therefore that the new measure to make the expense of the canal partly chargeable, at least, to the general Government will be sustained, and that as a consequence the capacity of the canal will be enlarged to meet the requirements of the carrying trade. As the greater part of the lumber from the lake ports is carried by this canal to Albany, Canadians will watch with interest the progress of this new measure in which they naturally take a deep interest.

Among our local items is one referring to a workingman, who has during the past summer with the assistance of his boys, been successful in laying by a respectable amount of his earnings in the savings bank. This circumstance is very suggestive in many respects; not that we consider it a rare thing among the workmen of this village, as our attention has been frequently directed to many residents of Deseronto, who have by the exercise of some economy placed themselves in a position of comfort and competence. This case may serve, however, to direct the attention of the careless and improvident to what may be accomplished by foresight and thrift. Thrift has been defined as merely common sense in every-day working action. A great many assert the impossibility of men with small wages saving anything, but the fact remains that it is done by many sober and industrious men who have thus the satisfaction of feeling that they are fully provided for against the proverbial rainy day. It is quite unnecessary to say that only too much of the earnings of all classes is foolishly wasted. Much has been done of late years to effect a change for the better, and the amounts in the Dominion savings banks at present, show that very many are taking advantage of these excellent institutions. It has been observed that in Chicago, crime is more prevalent on Sunday and gradually diminishes until Friday when it comparatively disappears. This is accounted for by the fact that wages paid on Saturday are largely spent in drink with the consequent results. In England and in many parts of America the custom is gaining ground of making Monday pay day, the practice which prevails here. It has already produced great results for good and an observable increase in the funds of the savings banks and similar institutions. The more the habit of thrift is cultivated the easier it becomes, and once acquired nothing will be found more conducive to personal independence.

Tired Wives.

WRITTEN FOR THE TRIBUNE.

How many we see of them! And is it to be wondered at when we see how much unnecessary work the women of the present day put upon themselves; making tidies, furling and ticking, washing and ironing the same, scrubbing and scouring, where it is not necessary, seems to be the sole aim of their lives. When will the women of our day learn that such things are not essential to home comfort.

You may be a young wife, your husband struggling to make a start in life; you wish to help him all you can. This is very commendable, but save yourself all you can. Your husband won't think any more of you for making a drudge of yourself. This is a mistake, which many young wives make. They think because Mrs. so and so has every article of furniture in her house covered with "tidies," and her beds decorated with frilled "shams," that as they don't cost much she must have them too.

So she sets to work frilling, ticking, and crocheting, and all this work of course makes extra washing and in consequence heart breaking hours at the ironing board. She now has no time to read the paper, or any instructive book, to take a walk with her husband, or to attend with him the lectures within their reach, and the consequence is, from close application to work which has not been conducive to her mental, physical, or social powers, she becomes nervous and irritable; always tired and weary. Her husband now concludes that instead of the angel he thought he married she has turned out something vastly different. Think the matter over "tired wives." Does the sight of those things repay you—or begin to repay you for the toil you have bestowed upon them, and sacrifice of the peace of your home.—I throw out. Throw them aside, devote your time to cultivating your mental and physical powers, and better still, let your evenings be spent in a social, cosy chat with your husband, that you may be able to help him or bear the burden of the day and you will be ready for the next day's necessary toil with much lighter hearts. Make your home as attractive as possible, but do not let it be at the expense of your health or good temper. You cannot be cheerful if you are overwrought, and remember the chief attraction of a home is a cheery wife and mother.

DUST DRAW.

The Algoma Election.

This election is now on the tapis. It may perhaps be a useful hint to intimate that an absolute lead at the polls may be obtained by the judicious distribution to the electors of Free's Cough Remedy, the great remedy for colds. Every sufferer would be made happy, and would certainly vote for the person affording him relief.

BITTERS!

Are you a martyr to Sick Headache? Do you feel miserable after eating? Does your stomach feel sour continually? Then use Crawford Bitters, the greatest tonic for the stomach of the age.

TESTIMONIALS.

Rev. R. Large Says:

Being for years afflicted with Dyspepsia, and finding my health greatly improved by a little of the Crawford Bitters, I am pleased to recommend it to those in like manner afflicted.

R. LARGE,

Minister of the M. E. Church, Montreal, Ont.

A St. Vincent Farmer Says:

This is to certify that I have used the Crawford Indian Bitters, and can recommend it as a first-class medicine for the blood. Was very bad with Dyspepsia for ten years. After using the above Bitters I could eat anything I wished without feeling any discomfort after, and feel thankful for the good health I am enjoying through them.

Yours, etc., SAMUEL ELYEA,

7th Line, St. Vincent.

Only One Package Cures Dyspepsia. Only a dollar package of the Crawford Bitters cured me of Dyspepsia after all other remedies failed.

PIOTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The result of our town elections is that the hotel men carried a majority in favor of leaving the number of hotels as they are, although they were defeated in the election of mayor, their man, S. W. Miller, was defeated by a majority of 17 in favor of E. Merrill mayor of 1883.

Scarlet fever of a dangerous type is prevalent in Bloomfield and vicinity, a number of small children have succumbed to its fatal embrace. The Rev. Brown of that place lately buried two small children from that disease. He was formerly on the Democratic circuit and is highly esteemed by the people of Bloomfield who sympathize with them in their bereavement.

SHANNONVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Presbyterian meeting, postponed from the 8th on account of the big storm, was held on the 14th inst., and was a great success. The Masonic Hall was crowded, and the gross proceeds amounted to about $120.

Miss Amelia McMichael has been appointed assistant school teacher here in the room and stead of Miss Clark, the popular assistant of last year. Sorry to lose the one and a hearty welcome to the other, is the general sentiment of the community.

The barley market here continues brisk, considering the state of the roads. At the McCannoy elevator they are storing for the opening of the navigation, while R. L. Lazier is storing at the big mill, and also loading cars at the station. Prices firm at 60 cents.

Our respected fellow townsman, Mr. Wm. Jenkins, has sold out his bakery business to Mr. Fred Hill, with a view to a removal to Prince Edward. While we are sorry to miss the bread and butter of our friend Jenkins, we tender to Fred our hearty congratulations and wish him the most abundant success in his new venture.

The annual missionary meeting was held in the Methodist Church on Thursday last, but owing to the condition of the roads and the uncertainty of the meeting, it was not very largely attended, though the proceeds were quite equal to any former year. The Rev. Dr. Jeffers, and M. B. Roblin, Esq., from Belleville were present as the delegation, and their services were very helpful to the cause. Proceeds at the meeting $44, with the body of the membership yet to be heard from.

MACDONALD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mrs. Randall is dangerously ill.

Miss Annie Clark is suffering from neuralgia.

Mrs. Goodfellow is suffering with a catarrh on the eye.

Mr. David Richardson has returned home again to Macdonald.

Mr. George Hamblly brought home his pretty little wife, we wish him much happiness.

Miss R. Connor, of Bay Creek, has been engaged to conduct the school for another year.

Mr. William R. Miller was thrown out of his cutter, but with no very serious injuries.

Misses Blanch and Mary Clark have gone to spend a few weeks with friends in Tyndinaga.

There has been a marked increase in travel from this side of the Bay to Deseronto this winter.

Mr. Richard Dingman is suffering with a bad cold, he must not strain his lungs so much at night.

Mr. Geo. Hamblly is moving on his farm, and it is unnecessary to say that he has the best wishes of the entire neighborhood, among whom he is a favorite.

We have a nice church here, but we have had no regular service for three or four months, and none at all for several weeks; where are the local preachers?

The roads are much drifted in every direction and the storm of Tuesday last has made matters much worse. It is difficult under such circumstances to get news.

The road on the bay to Deseronto has not been very good as the snow does not pack very well and the frequent storms, even in spite of so much traffic, make travelling heavy.

Times here are very dull, we have had only one mail in two weeks, instead of four.

Mr. James Parks of Hay Bay is mail carrier. Surely the path-masters are obliged to keep open the roads. Some one is in fault.

Parliamentary Summary.

The Dominion Parliament was opened last Thursday, the Governor General reading his speech in English and French. After expressing his satisfaction in being called by her Majesty to represent her in Canada, he refers to the generally flourishing condition of the country despite a period of depression. He congratulates the country on the success of the fisheries exhibition, increased immigration, successful settlement of British Columbia claims, rapid progress of the C. P. Railway, increase of traffic on the Intercolonial and progress of the Indians in the Northwest. Bills will be introduced to amend the Northwest Territories act, to give Indians municipal government, extension of the franchise, and to regulate factory labour. The reply to the address was moved by Mr. McMaster, of Glenora, and seconded by Mr. Beale. The speech was subsequently criticised by Mr. Blake who referred to the depression in trade and failure of the Government's fiscal and Railway policy. Sir John replied with a characteristic speech.

On Monday several Reports were presented to the House. Mr. Cameron of Huron introduced a bill to amend the criminal laws. The premier introduced the Franchise Bill. Mr. McCarthy brought in his Bill respecting carriers by land. On Tuesday Mr. Charlton introduced his Seduction bill.

MAXIMS.—To be healthy use Crofoot Bitters. To be happy To them. You will prove yourself wise by keeping them constantly in the house.

School Report.

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1884.
TOWN AND COUNTRY.

GREAT bodies move slowly.

A stock of Presbyterian hymnals on sale at THE TRIBUNE OFFICE.

TO THE WOODS.—Mr. Chas. Dryden left this week with six more teams for the lumber woods.

GO TO THE BIG STORE for Salt Water Herrings, Fresh Water Herrings, Salmon Trout, White Fish and Pickled.

BARLEY.—Barley has been coming in pretty freely despite the bad roads, and several large shipments have already been made by rail.

INVITATION.—The choir of the Church of the Redeemer have been invited to go to Trenton to lend their assistance at a church festival in that town.

DIVISION COURTS.—The next session of the Division Court of Deseronto will be held on the 15th day of February; that of Shannonville will be held Feb. 12th.

TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP.—The Deseronto Snow Shoe Club had a march out by torch light last Saturday evening, the members enjoying themselves most thoroughly.

PUBLIC HEALTH.—A great many are suffering at present from colds, mumps and such trivial ailments, and there are, besides, we regret to state, several cases of malarial and typhoid fever.

MORTUARY.—Careful calculations prove that a crematory would not be less expensive, and it will be necessary after all to secure a plot of land for a cemetery in which to bury the victims of our densely packed school rooms.

CONSERVATORY.—Visitors who took advantage of the invitation to visit Mr. E. W. Rathbun's conservatory were most pleased with the rich display of flowers. Mr. Croft will be prepared to receive all who may come along next Monday afternoon.

GOOD TIMES COMING.—"Edward's" letter has excited much comment, and has already been productive of good, several sleighing parties being arranged to come off during the coming week. The ladies, and not the young men, are the prime movers in this matter.

GAS WORKS.—Work, under the supervision of Mr. G. Walker, is steadily progressing at the chemical works and the temporary buildings have all been completed. The new machinery will soon be in position so that gas may be expected again at an early day.

PULP MILLS.—It is reported that the Napanee Paper Mills Co. have sold their pulp mills at Peterborough. At their new mill at Lindsay they produce a large quantity of chemically prepared pulp and this with what they manufacture near Napanee will be sufficient for all demands.

M. E. CHURCH.—Contrary to the intimation given from the pulpit last Sabbath, the Rev. L. O. Mallory will preach in the M. E. Church next Sabbath morning, at the usual hour, taking as a special subject of discourse on the occasion "The Bible and Wine." Members of the congregation and the public generally will please remember this intimation.

R. C. CHURCH.—There will be service in the Roman Catholic church on Wednesday, Feb. 6th, at 9 a.m., and the pastor will also hear confession on the Tuesday evening previous at 8 o'clock. After the first of March services will be held every Sunday in Deseronto with the exception of the last Sunday in the month, on which day Father McDonough goes to Richmond Township.

INTERESTING STATISTICS.—Mr. David Alexander has kindly favoured THE TRIBUNE and its readers with the following interesting statistics regarding the visitors to the Big Mill during the past season: From April 26th to Dec. 11th no less than 423 ladies and 1167 gentlemen visited that great establishment; and on July 12th, 98 ladies and 155 gentlemen looked in to see what was going on.

D. Faulkner Esq., Reeve of Stirling, has been elected Warden of the County of Hastings.

It is rumored that the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer intend having a Reunion next Tuesday evening.

NEW TUG.—The first shipment, two carloads, of the material for the new tug to be constructed for Messrs. Gilbert & Son, of Montreal, as made last Monday.

There has been another run this week on Ciedis' restaurant, but the popular proprietor has proved equal to the occasion and has still on hand a good supply of oysters and groceries &c.

Don't forget the skating carnival this evening. Mr. Barnhart has made great preparations for visitors, and the proprietor of the Ferguson House is well prepared for his part of the evening's programme.

WANTED.—Mr. R. Geddis wants 200 men, wanting boys to carry away oysters. Having received a large consignment direct from Baltimore, I am prepared to furnish oysters wholesale or retail, so in order to secure what you want send in your order early to avoid the big rush.—R. GEDDIS.

CANADIANS ABROAD.—Apogee of Dr. Cochrane's lecture and his remarks concerning the orange groves of Southern California were so interesting that large numbers of Canadians are settled there and several districts are known by old Canadian names. Messrs. Geo. Chaffey & Son, formerly of Kingston, control a large water-works system for irrigation purposes, and Messrs. Birch, Craig and many other old residents of the Limestone city are now domiciled in that far off clime.

BAY VIEW FARM.—Mr. Howatt, manager of Bay View Farm has sold one of his valuable Jersey cows to Messrs. Gurney & Ware, of London, at a handsome figure, and has many inquiries for other animals in his herd-book. He generously returned the prize money taken at the Lennox Fair to the directors of the society. He has also, we hear, invited the members of the County Council of Lennox and Addington to visit Bay View Farm to see his well appointed establishment.

A. O. U. W.—Quinte Lodge 215 of the Ancient Order of United Workmen was instituted in Deseronto by Deputy Grand Master Long on Monday evening, Jan. 21st. The following officers were elected:—Past Master, J. Newton, M. D., Master, D. R. McRae; Foreman, Geo. Snider; Overseer, E. H. Miller; Recorder, F. H. Sims; Financier, J. T. Greatrix; Receiver, Robt. Geddis; Guide, Jas. Donohoe; L. W. Charles, Vade; O. W., Hugh Colbourne; Trustees, Bros. Evans, Newton and McRae.

DONK BROWN.—Last Friday night while the Bay of Quinte hands were trying to break the blockade on the line, caused by the drifting snow, the supply of fuel began to get dangerously low. It was determined to borrow some coal from the Junction, but arriving there it was found that all were retired for the night and nothing remained but to help themselves; accordingly taking an empty flour barrel they partially filled it with coal and started off. This action was, however, observed by a neighbor who reported it to Mr. A. Brown, the agent. He concluded at once that some Napanee tramps had stolen a barrel of his flour and with rare presence of mind began to measure foot prints, count the number of nail marks in the heels, take charts of mosses and marks, and was just preparing to summon the whole G. T. detective force when the Deseronto men arrived on the scene. Explanations followed and peace again reigns at the Junction.

LECTURE.—The Ladies Aid Society deserve the thanks of the community for inviting Dr. Cochrane to deliver his lecture "Across the Rockies" during his visit to Deseronto. Lectures as a general thing do not draw like a Minstrel Troupe but there was a good and representative assembly out on Monday evening notwithstanding the unfavourable weather. W. R. Aylsworth, Esq., Reeve of Deseronto, presided and introduced Dr. Cochrane. The eloquent lecturer fully sustained his reputation, holding the attention of his audience for two hours as they followed him from Chicago to Leadville, Denver, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Fe and home again. Much information was given concerning the Mormon system, and the Chinese question was also discussed. The description of the Rockies, the orange groves and vineyards of Southern California and the ancient city of the Holy Faith were very fine, and all present expressed themselves as more than pleased with the intellectual treat afforded them on the occasion.

Bright refined sugar 8c per pound, or 13 lbs. for $1.00 at the Big Store. The exports from Deseronto to American ports for the quarter ending Dec 3rd reached $80,000.

REMOVING.—We learn that Mr. George Hancock intends removing with his family to Bloomfield, Prince Edward County.

NOTICE.—There will be no meeting this week of St. Mark's Church Literary Society, but it is expected that a meeting will be held some evening of next week of which due notice will be given.

NOTICE.—The Rev. R. J. Craig will preach the annual missionary sermon to the O. M. congregation next Sabbath evening in the brick church. We trust there will be a large attendance on the occasion.

BIG RUSH.—The fine weather at the close of last week enabled many farmers to get to town and the hotels found it almost impossible to provide entertainment, so great was the rush to the best market in the Bay district.

TOO BAD.—THE TRIBUNE's attention is drawn to several places along our principal streets where the snow-shovel was not used after the recent storm, the result being bad sidewalks. Being loth to mention names, we give them another week's grace.

THIRTY.—A gentleman in the big store informs us of a labourer in the village who has during the past season put by savings to the amount of two hundred dollars, and that too, without apparently stinting himself or his family of the comforts of life. This is an excellent illustration of what can be effected by the exercise of some measure of economy.

TOO SLOW.—Napanee, for once, has got the start of Deseronto. The school board of that town discovered that the departments of the public schools were over crowded and that the staff of teachers was too small. They immediately grappled with the question have already secured an additional teacher, and are preparing to secure more accommodation.

OBITUARY.—In another column is recorded the death of Miss Bridget Wims, of Belleville. The deceased, who was a sister of Mr. Patrick Wims of the Big Store, was attending the Convent of the Sacred Heart, where she was a general favorite; her early death has cast a gloom over a wide circle of friends and evoked general sympathy for the bereaved parents.

THE EAST HASTINGS Agricultural Society elected the following officers and directors:—President, Thos. Martin; Vice-Presidents, Andrew Coulter, Wm. Clazio; Directors, Wm. Barber, David Hewitt; Thos. Graham, Chas. Anderson, Wm. Gillespie, David Holstead, Wm. R. Fargay, W. H. Ketcheson, Geo. McCaldwell; Secretary, P. R. Palmer; Treasurer, Chas. Hudson, Sr.; Auditors, E. N. Gould and W. A. Chapman.

MUSICAL.—Go where you will along any of our streets of an evening and the sounds of piano, organ, violin, and all kinds of music, vocal and instrumental, may be heard, thus evidencing the musical proclivities of the population. There is nothing more refining than music and no accomplishment which can be cultivated with better effects. Why not adopt the fashionable custom so prevalent elsewhere and form a local choral union?

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A distressing accident occurred at the sash factory on Tuesday, by which J. Cartwright, a young man about eighteen years of age, had all the fingers of his right hand cut off by a saw. The young man, who is a son of Mr. J. Cartwright of the railway office, was immediately attended by Dr. Newton, who dressed the wounded hand, performing the necessary surgical operations; we learn that he is progressing favourably.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment held under the auspices of St. Mark's Church Literary Society last Friday evening drew a good and an appreciative audience. The exposure of Spiritualism by Mr. R. M. Roy, of Belleville, was watched with breathless interest, and afforded an unlimited amount of pleasure, while his feats in thought reading were worthy of a Cumberland or Bishop. The Rhodian Mystery was by request repeated and the wonderful materialization of spirits proved that Mr. Roy is a complete master of the Black Art. The members of the Society did their portion of the programme well. Mr. H. Aylsworth rendering a solo and Mr. J. Hoppes a piece in elocution. Mr. T. Rosch accompanying on the violin. The president of the society and Miss Tait made an excellent couple of demure Quakers, and Mr. Hodgkinson was

"Uncle Sam" pronounced his oration in good style. At the close of the meeting on the part of Mr. T. Nasmith a hearty vote of thanks was returned to Mr. Roy for his kindness in giving his services gratuitously to the members of the society. The people of Deseronto would, we think, be glad to be favoured with another visit from Mr. Roy at an early day.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The congregation of the Church of the Redeemer commemorated the opening of their church by special services last Sabbath. The Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Brantford, who as Moderator of the General Assembly, had opened the new church last year, had been invited by the Board of Managers to conduct the services on this occasion also. The Reverend gentleman kindly consented to do so, and the people of Deseronto had thus the pleasure of listening again to this gifted divine. He preached both morning and evening with great acceptance, the sermon on the latter occasion being especially a masterly effort in which with great vigour and eloquence he directed his large audience to the necessity of personal religion. His earnest plea will not soon be forgotten by those present. At the close of the morning service he drew attention to the new scheme now being promoted so successfully by the Presbyterian Church in Canada for the augmentation of ministers stipends, by which it is proposed to raise the salary of all the clergymen in assisted charges to a minimum of $750 and a manse. A collection was accordingly taken at the evening service for that purpose. Dr. Cochrane also addressed the children of the Union Sabbath School in the afternoon in a manner which secured their undivided attention.

School Board.

The School Board met last Saturday evening, all the members being present.

The secretary reported that the Inspector had sent two teachers, Miss Mayhew and Miss Richards, to fill the vacancies in the staff.

Arrangements were made for putting the cellar in order, and for cutting and piling fire wood.

A committee was appointed to provide a railing for the schoolsteps leading to the street, and a request made to the teachers to prevent the coasting of the pupils on the school walks, and also as far as possible to prevent pupils from disorderly conduct and profane language in going to or returning from school.

The chairman announced that the board must soon meet to consider means of increased school accommodation.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Geo. Hamby, of Macdonald, paid us a pleasant visit on Monday.

Miss Emma McCarthy, of Belleville, is enjoying a pleasant visit to Deseronto.

Miss Northcott, of Belleville, has been visiting friends in Deseronto this week.

Dr. Clinton who had been suffering from a severe cold for a few days is himself again.

Mrs. Peter McLaren has been suffering from an attack of Malarial fever during the past week.

Misses, P. Elliott and J. Wood, of Kingston, paid us a friendly visit on Tuesday evening.

Rev. A. Young, of Napanee, came up on Monday evening to join the excursion "Across the Rockies."

E. Walter Rathbun set out Monday with Mr. T. Butler to visit the shanties at Black Creek and thus get an idea of logging operations.

W. R. Aylsworth, Esq., our respected Reeve, is absent at Belleville this week looking after village interests in the County Council.

Mr. C. E. Hubbs, accountant of the flour mill, has, we regret to say, been suffering during the past week from an attack of malarial fever.

Mr. Jas. Burgess, who has been superintending building operations on various stations of the Ontario & Quebec arrived in town last Friday.

Mr. A. Cronk, of the Wallaceburgh Echo, gave us the pleasure of a call on Monday. He is visiting friends and renewing acquaintances in the Bay district, and expresses himself surprised at the growth of Deseronto.

DEATHS.

At Belleville, on the 17th inst, Bridget, only daughter of Peter and Bridget Wims, aged 15 years and 2 months.

Little Things

Seem to constitute the very essence of life. The little drops of water unite to form the mighty ocean, and a hundred examples might be cited to prove how important after all are the little things. Now, corns are small affairs. Little sympathy is expected, though they should be a source of agony to the unhappy possessor. FURNAS'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR is an emblem of its use, perfect, speedy, and painless action it has gained the good will and kind words of thousands who have used it. Don't take the dangerous substitutes offered by some, but see that it is made by Polson & Co., Kingston. Safe, sure, painless.

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1884.

The elections on Tuesday, for the House of Commons, in West Kent and York, N. B., resulted in the return of the conservative candidates by large majorities.

THE name of no less a personage than a Lt. Governor is connected with what appears to be a shady transaction in the North West lands. There is no doubt that several of those who filled the position of Governor, or who acted in other official capacities in Manitoba and the North West, made use of the knowledge acquired by their official position, to carry out the duty of what is commonly styled feathering their own nest. There is no doubt at the same time, that popular sentiment, irrespective of party, has frowned on this method of acquiring wealth, and that they and their families will long have to submit to the finger of scorn on that account. It is held, and held rightly too, that Governors like judges should be above reproach and it is satisfactory to know that in the older provinces, they have, with the exception of the present case, shown themselves worthy of their exalted position.

THE recent storms which have so effectively succeeded in blocking the roads in all directions have not been without their uses, as they have shown most clearly that the present system of keeping the roads open is a complete failure. In this matter, at least Ontario, may take a lesson from Quebec, where, though the storms have been more severe and the snow deeper, traffic has not been as completely blocked as is the case in this province. We observe that the various county councils have been discussing the matter and that government will be asked to take action and provide some remedies for the existing state of affairs. Some suggest wire fences along the principal highways or the partial removal of rail fences in autumn. The latter should be compulsory, and pathmasters, armed with greater powers, should be held to more strict account than they appear to be at present. A couple of feet of snow should not paralyse trade as it appears to have done lately.

It is painful for the journalist to be compelled to record any case which reflects on the honesty and integrity of even the most humble member of the community. As far as can be learned, this village is comparatively free from that class of prowling thieves with which so many towns are infested. It is only by vigilance on the part of parents and guardians, and the inculcation of lessons of thrift and honesty by teachers and clergymen, that this threatening evil can be averted. Parents, especially, should be ever watchful to guard against any act on the part of children, which might have the slightest tendency to bring reproach on their fair name or character. There are too many young lads to be seen every evening running about the streets of the village, their parents being heedless or ignorant of their whereabouts. Many are doubt contracting habits which must eventually prove ruinous, and we would appeal to all to check as far as possible this growing evil. Again it would be well when boys carry home, as they may thoughtlessly do, articles of value such as tools, &c. that parents should see that they are compelled to return them promptly to the rightful owner. A wholesome lesson would thus be given, for it is quite unnecessary to waste that from these apparently trivial acts, much of the crime and consequent sorrow and shame slowly, but only too certainly, proceed.

THE Dominion Government have again introduced a bill for the extension of the franchise, which is said to be similar in its provisions to that introduced last session. The local Government are also introducing a measure having the same end in view, but we are not yet informed of the changes it embodies. It is gratifying to find that both Cabinets are desirous to extend the franchise for a large class of people, who have hitherto been unjustly deprived of this invaluable right. It does not seem natural that a new, and as we are apt to think more progressive country like Canada, should have been so far behind the mother country in a matter of this nature. We claim to be more democratic in every respect, but investigation shows that on some points, at least, we can properly imitate the old land. In the Dominion elections, hitherto, it has been the practice to give the right of voting to such persons as were qualified to vote for the members of the local legislature. It is now proposed to change this, and make one common qualification for the whole Dominion. While this will tend to limit the number of electors in some of the smaller provinces, such as Prince Edward Island, where they have practically universal suffrage, yet it will, on the whole, and especially in this province, extend the right of franchise to many who have not at present that privilege. In a place like Deseronto, it will greatly add to the list of the electors, and thus increase the influence of the village in approaching contests in the Riding. THE TRIBUNE hails the measure with satisfaction on the supposition that it is only the precursor of a measure still more sweeping and liberal in its terms.

PERSONAL.

Mr. F. W. Powell has been in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clark are visiting friends in Bancroft.

Miss H. Higgins, of Colborne, arrived in Deseronto last week.

Mr. Jas. Donahue, of the Big Store, paid a visit to Kingston on Monday.

Miss McDonald, of Kingston, is spending a few days very pleasantly in town.

Mr. W. Boulter, of Boulter & Dunning, Picton, was in town last Saturday.

Miss Clarke, formerly a teacher in the Public School, is visiting old friends in Deseronto.

Mr. J. M. Poitras has been paying some flying visits to the different yards of the Rathbun Company.

Mr. A. Smith, of Smithville, has been in town during the past week on account of the illness of his father.

Miss Nellie McMahon, of Belleville, is paying a pleasant visit to this vicinity, being the guest of Miss Butler.

Mr. W. T. Smith, agent for W. H. Story, glove manufacturer of Acadia, spent Saturday and Sunday in Deseronto.

John White, Esq., M. P., arrived home the other day from the West and is now attending to his duties in Ottawa.

Mr. W. A. Gilmour, of the Big Store office, has been on the sick list, as a result of a severe cold, during the past week.

Mr. Wm. Paterson, who has been on the sick list during the past week, is, we are glad to state, able to be about again.

Capt. S. V. Anderson, of the steamer Parthen has arrived in Deseronto where he will probably remain for the rest of the winter.

MAXIMS.—To be healthy use Crowfoot Bitters. To be wealthy sell them. You will prove yourself wise by keeping them constantly in the house.

Napance and Tamworth Ry.

It will take another week to complete the survey of the country in the vicinity of the sinkhole which we previously reported; six men are at present employed at this task.

The locomotive of the line has gone to Gananoque for a few days to take the place of the one in use there, which has been slightly disabled by its encounters with the snow banks.

Mr. W. S. Williams, secretary of the Napance and Tamworth Ry., has gone to Ottawa to secure the necessary amendments in the charter of the Company to enable them to extend the line, build branches, and otherwise increase their powers.

The plucky people of Tamworth are exceedingly anxious to have the station at that place located at a point a short distance to the rear of Wheeler's store. This would necessitate the erection of a bridge across Salmon River and additional expenditures not to be met on the old route. The people of the village are alive, however, to the advantage of a convenient and central station and several with great public spirit have offered to contribute liberally towards meeting the expense of a bridge and different location of the line. The citizens are determined to maintain the supremacy of Tamworth as the metropolis of the northern townships.

Are you a martyr to Sick Headache? Do you feel miserable after eating? Does your stomach feel sour continually? Then use Crowfoot Bitters, the greatest tonic for the stomach of the age.

Rev. R. Large Says: Being for years afflicted with Dyspepsia, and finding my health greatly improved by only a little of the Crowfoot Bitters, I am pleased to recommend it to those in like manner afflicted.

Minister of the N. B. Church, Bedford, Ont. A St. Vincent Farmer Says: This is to certify that I have used the Crowfoot Indian Bitters, and can recommend it as a first-class medicine for the blood. Was very bad with Dyspepsia for ten years. After using the above Bitters I could eat anything I wished without feeling any discomfort after, and feel thankful for the good health I am enjoying through them.

Yours, etc., SAMUEL ELYEA, 29 Kent, St. Vincent.

Only One Package Cures Dyspepsia. Only a small package of the Crowfoot Bitters cured me of Dyspepsia after all other remedies failed.

T. H. EASTON, Mackay, Ont., Durham, Ont.

MAODONALD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Parties are still raging. School section No. 11 has engaged a very popular school teacher, one about the right age. There has been no service in the Bethany Church for four weeks. We are all glad to see our old friend Mrs. J. Rendall able to attend to her work again. Mr. A. Blakely has been for a short time to Belleville visiting friends. Mrs. S. Walsley is suffering from the effects of a severe cold. Mr. J. Bartley and Miss Christina Walsley have been quite ill. Mr. Henry Seely's saw and grist mill was recently burned down. The cause of the fire is unknown; loss $2000. No insurance.

SHANNONVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The young ladies of the Episcopalian Church here, wisely availing themselves of the traditional advantages of the Leap Year, have made arrangements for a Leap Year Promenade and Concert to be held in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening next. The young people generally are pushing the matter with commendable enthusiasm, and a love-sick swain has been induced to purchase tickets freely in view of possible results. We hope the treacherous weather may prove favorable, and that their efforts may be rewarded with abundant success. Mrs. McLeod Palmer, youngest sister of Matthew Hill, Esq., Government Agent of the Mohawk Reserve, was committed to the silent grave on Thursday last, and notwithstanding a terrible storm that raged all day, the Presbyterian Church was densely crowded by sympathizing friends who gathered to testify to their high esteem for the departed. A very appropriate sermon was preached on the occasion by the Rev. J. C. Ash, from the text: "His sun is gone down while it is yet day." Just before midnight she was a beautiful, happy bride, and so soon gone over to the great majority.

PITION.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The present proprietors of the Victoria gave an oyster supper to about 30 friends on Friday evening last. A pleasant evening was spent. Sold Out.—Thos. Wilson of the Victoria Hotel has sold one half interest to Capt. Ostrander of the schooner Fabiola, and leaves for Clifton to-day, where he expects to take the Clifton House last Feb. The C. O. R. R. has suspended traffic for the present. The last train to leave Pition was on Monday last week, the 21st. They expect to open the road again this week, providing no large storm intervene. The sleighing both in the town and country is so very bad it is raising the price of wood. A team can only haul about half a cord of wood to market, and it is no uncommon thing to have to reload twice before reaching town. The great Quaker trial is ended and the young and progressive party have a very large bill costs to pay. It is said to be over $5000. They have given up the keys of their places of worship in Bloomfield and Wellington to the older body or conservative friends and intend to build a new church next summer. The weather being so stormy on Wednesday last, the County Council was only about half represented, and the meeting was adjourned to Thursday of this week for the election of Warden, which office will be considered more important now as it will furnish one of the new license commissioners to be appointed 1st May next.

CONSECON.

Owing to the heavy roads, business has been quite dull the last week. Mr. K. Porter, our worthy "Host" has had a severe attack of rheumatism but is much better now. Miss Frances Smith has been dangerously ill from an attack of inflammation of the lungs but I am pleased to say that she is gradually recovering. The good templars gave a social for the benefit of the Methodist Church, although the roads and weather were very unfavorable, they had every reason to feel flattered by the crowd and proceeds which were quite large. The Central Ontario Railway Co. has been very unfortunate this winter. They have had one engine completely wrecked by the deep snow throwing it off the track. There were but two trains last week, on Monday. The roads are in a most deplorable state at present on account of the severe snow storms which have visited us during the last two weeks. The road master should do his duty and have the roads cleared. Mr. Heffernan cannot have too much praise for the manner in which he has ventured out in the storms to deliver our mails to us daily. The stock of John Byers, consisting of dry goods, boots and shoes, etc., to the amount of about $4000, was sold at auction last week, by Macnee & Minnes, of Kingston, the plaintiffs, and brought $14 c. on the dollar. Mr. Percy Clark, of Kingston, was the purchaser. The store was opened the next day for business, with Mr. Byers as manager and Mr. D. W. Watt, assistant. SUNDAY PARTY.—A large party of ladies and gentlemen repaired to the house of Mr. C. Huycke, a short distance out of town, Friday evening, well supplied with eatables, where a very jolly and pleasant time was spent. They enjoyed the "mazy dance," until a late hour when they returned home very much pleased with the kind reception they met with from the members of the family.

MARMORA.

(From our own Correspondent.) Business is very brisk here and every one cheerful. Thermometer 36° below zero. Snow on ground, no trail on the Grand Junction for three days, consequently no mail up here during that period, much grumbling among the merchants. Your correspondent with club in hand thought he was in for a dog fight last night, but was disappointed and grieved to find it was only Her Majesty's official under the influence of—well—it might be water, wrestling with a big chunk of wood in the snow. Operations on the extension of the Central Ontario Railway have been suspended, but freight trains are being run from Trenton to the Jordan. They are a great boon to the merchants here, bringing goods within three miles of the village by rail and so getting rid of the long haul from Stirling. Messrs. Warren's carriage factory and blacksmiths were located on the ground last Monday night. Small insurance on the building owned by Mr. T. P. Pearce but no insurance on the contents, much sympathy is felt for the young men who lost all their effects. Moral—insure your property and without delay. Mr. J. E. Bowen is agent for the "Royal" and will shortly call on those who are not already insured. Jim is a reliable man and every one who insures with him will find himself placed in a safe company. Leap year was hailed with delight here, six girls to every fellow; free passes on all lines issued to every single young man who will spend his holidays in this section, special inducements offered to the "TRIBUNE" staff and its gallant Kingston correspondent. Girls, don't despair, Magenta hair has captured a fellow.

TRENTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Truthful Thomas, THE TRIBUNE'S Trenton tattler, too late to-day to trust these trifles to the tardy train to transmit them, thus telephones touching things transpiring throughout the territory tributary to that town. The town's truly tranquil. To tell the truth, though Trentonians term the tale treasonable, traducing their trade. 'Tis totally torpid. Though the Treasurer takes thankfully the townsmen's tribute, the taxes trickle tardily to the town-treasury. The tradesmen, taking them together, think the taxation too tough this term. Tell them, "These taxes treble their trade," they term this treble tale—"Too truly trusted till tried." Taxation? Troublesome topic! Theme too tiresome to tackle till they've taken their tea! Then 'twill tempt their tongues to twattle! Taciturn till then, they turn themselves to their tedious task, tracing temporary tracks to their thresholds to turn either the transient traffic, till that time tempt the timid traveller (tempest tossed, terrified, trembling to-day) to take the train to Trenton to trade there—tempt the thrifty tillers that toil throughout the township to tackle their teams, take the turnpikes to the town, till troupe, trucking through the thoroughfares thereof, try through trades thaurmaturgy, to turn turkeys to tea, turnips to tobacco. The tailors, true to their traditions, tastelessly trim their throats, trying their trustiest tricks to tempt the tapers turning their taprons to temperance tabernacles, trust to their tables to tempt, through the toothsome things thereon, tired travellers to transfer their tin to the temperance tavern keeper's till. Train traffic to-day thoroughly trammeled, the topography, throughout the track totally transformed. The trainmen tenaciously try to take their trains to the terminus, the tempest thwarting them. They take the tender to the tank; thence to the turntable, this the thoroughfare! that the traffic. The thermometer threatens, therefore the tempesters take the trail to the thickest thicket to transfer truncated trees to tempt the teakettle to test its thermal trump. They toiled to tug the trees to this tenebment. The tea table tonight testifies that they triumphed. Tableau truly transporting! Thriftless tramps thinking the turnpikes too tough to travel till the train, turn to the town to try till-tapping. Treatment:—take them, try them, transport them to Toronto.

Dominion Parliament.

On Friday Mr. Laurier introduced a bill to limit the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, Mr. McCarthy a bill to facilitate land transfers in the territories. A motion of Mr. Cameron (Huron) re the Fish Creek Supply Farm aroused a sharp debate and Mr. Blake in a long speech moved for papers in reference to the appointment of Dr. Tupper as High Commissioner in London. On Monday Mr. Cameron introduced his Bill to amend the Dominion License Act. The Postmaster General stated that Government was considering the question of reducing the postage. On Tuesday the Premier brought in the Bill for self government among Indian Communities and the House passed a resolution for granting aid to the public schools of Manitoba.

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an application will be made to the Parliament of Canada at the next sittings thereof for an Act to amend the Act relating to the Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec Railway Company (42 Victoria, chapter 67) by giving to the Company power to build a branch line from some point on their line to the Kingston and Pembroke Railway, and easterly or north-easterly therefrom, and to build a branch line from some point on their line to Madoc or Tweed or some point westerly or north-westerly of same, or to extend the main line to some point on the Hudson Bay or James Bay, and to increase the bonding powers of the Company, and to give power to the said Company to lease, buy and work any iron or other mines, and to purchase lands and to erect mills, manufactories and elevators and to work the same, and for other purposes. Dated this 24th day of December, 1883. W. S. WILLIAMS, Secretary Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec Railway Company.

THE THAW.

ALL aboard for Marmora.

PORK has advanced $5. per barrel in Chicago.

Bay of Quinte Canning Co's preserved fruits at the big store. Give them a trial.

Now is the winter of our discontent rendered still more dismal by the threatening presence of the impending icicle.

Is it possible that a lack of sociability and friendship pervades the churches of Deseronto? A church member's letter in another column would lead to such a conclusion.

VERY LOW.—A boss in the big mill asserted that on bringing his thermometer out of that establishment into the cold air last Friday morning, the mercury fell so low and suddenly as to burst the bulb.

ASSESSOR.—In recording the minutes of the Village Council last week, we omitted to mention that by a vote of the Council Mr. John McCullough was again appointed to the position of Assessor for this municipality during the current year.

THE Rev. R. J. Craig exchanged pulpits with the Rev. J. C. Ash on Sabbath evening last, and preached an able missionary sermon to a large congregation in the brick church. These pulpit courtesies by the ministers of different churches are greatly in favor with the people.

PROMOTED.—Mr. Jacob Breakall who has been for twenty-one years a trusted employee of the Messrs. Rathbun, has been promoted to the position of manager of the extensive stables of the Rathbun Company. THE TRIBUNE unites with everyone in Deseronto in congratulating him on this well earned promotion.

NOISY.—Two boys, by their disorderly conduct, most successfully managed to disturb a whole congregation last Sunday evening in one of the churches. It is the privilege of the youth of Deseronto to annoy all public assemblies, and THE TRIBUNE, therefore, hesitates to be the first to equal their ebullient and hitherto undisputed right.

PLEASANT PARTY.—A very pleasant social party took place last Friday evening at the residence of Mr. T. Butler on the Nanapanee road, Miss Butler having kindly invited a large number of the young people of Deseronto to be present on the occasion. All who had the good fortune to be present expressed themselves as having a more than ordinarily pleasant time.

FUEL.—The recent cold weather has been very hard on fuel, and had roads render it almost impossible to get in wood from the country. All the towns of the country are suffering in consequence, and coal is running short. The Rathbun Co. have received orders for 30 or 40 car-loads for Kingston, Nanapanee, Campbellford, etc. This will be forwarded by rail from the mines by way of Niagara Bridge.

CARNIVAL.—On account of the severe stormy weather of last Thursday the skating carnival was postponed until Friday evening. The rink was well illuminated for the occasion and the ice in fairly good condition. There was a large assembly of skaters in costumes which exhibited many new designs and fancy figures. The bill held subsequently at the Ferguson House was well attended and most successfully carried out.

TIMBER.—At the cedar mill, last Thursday, Christopher Cronk assisted by John Billa, manufactured railway ties, fence posts, and other articles, and out of compass for his family, no action will be taken beyond the dismissal of the party, on condition of his removing at once from Deseronto. This crime of stealing workmen's tools is considered one of the meanest of thefts and it is questionable if it serving the ends of justice to let offenders off so easily.

Slates, stationery, &c., for sale at THE TRIBUNE Office.

The Big Store is selling off the balance of their winter goods rapidly, no reasonable offer is refused.

DOORS.—A carload of doors is about ready for shipment to New Zealand. The factory expects to have large orders during the coming season.

ICE.—Parties have commenced to cut and draw in a supply of ice for future use; after all the severe weather we have had this winter there should be a good crop of this useful article.

People complain that they cannot get good apples in town; they have evidently not tried Geddis' at whose restaurant they may be secured along with best quality of groceries and delectable oysters.

LUMBER SHIPMENTS.—Mr. F. W. Powell has completed arrangements for the shipment of thirty car-loads of lumber from Ottawa via Portland, this lumber being sold by the Rathbun Co. to the Export Lumber Co., of New York.

DULL TIMES.—In the midst of the prevailing universal depression it is satisfactory to find that we are not as badly off in Deseronto as in other towns, the great bulk of the working population having employment. Some nine hands were despatched to the lumber works the other day.

IMPROVING.—It is pleasing to learn that Mr. Hubbs, accountant of the Deseronto Flour Mill, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever has passed the crisis of the disease and is now recovering. For some days the case was considered very critical but it is now fondly hoped that the patient is out of danger.

FERRY.—We are ignorant of the Council's action with reference to the ferryage question, but trust that they have corresponded with Capt. Jellet in reference to securing the Prince Edward for that service. Winter is the time for building docks and getting proper landings. It would be well also to discover what the townships across the bay would do to aid the enterprise.

TOLL GATES.—One by one the relics of the dark ages are rapidly disappearing in this progressive age. The system of toll gates which has long since been a reproach to Ontario appears to be doomed, as there is a disposition on the part of County Councils to make gravel roads free. Farmers and business men have too long been harassed by the imposition of this odious and unjust tax.

FOR TORONTO.—W. R. Aylsworth, Esq., with several members of the County Council, left last Tuesday morning for Toronto to attend the convention of delegates convened to discuss the assessment question. The deputation while in Toronto will interview the Government and urge upon it the necessity of giving a grant to the colonization road in Humberford. THE TRIBUNE trusts they may be successful in their mission.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH LITERARY SOCIETY.—The next social under the auspices of St. Mark's Church Literary Society will be held at the residence of Mr. Geo. Stewart of the Deseronto House, on Friday evening next, Feb. 1st. An attractive programme has been arranged for the occasion and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are certain to leave nothing undone to make all visitors perfectly at home, so that a particularly pleasant time may be anticipated. Admission 15 cents.

RAILWAY BONDS.—At the meeting of the County Council it will be seen that it was unanimously resolved to petition the Dominion Parliament for a grant of $30,000 a mile for the extension of the Belleville and North Hastings Railway. This extension will open up a large section of rich and valuable land in the back townships of Hastings, will also assist Belleville, and probably be of even greater benefit to Deseronto. There is no doubt, therefore, that the authorities at Ottawa will grant a sufficient sum to ensure the success of the undertaking.

THEFT.—Mr. Roach and some of the mechanics of the cedar mill have been missing tools, nails, screws, leather, &c., of late. It is understood that the party who stole them has been discovered and has restored part of his plunder. At the earnest solicitation of some of the men, including some from whom the articles were stolen, and out of compassion for his family, no action will be taken beyond the dismissal of the party, on condition of his removing at once from Deseronto. This crime of stealing workmen's tools is considered one of the meanest of thefts and it is questionable if it serving the ends of justice to let offenders off so easily.

STILL on hand a number of copies of that popular tale, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," at THE TRIBUNE office, only 5 cents.

SAVED ARMY.—A detachment of the Saved Army marched through town on Tuesday evening, bearing transparencies with suitable legends. They subsequently held services in a private residence of the village.

SNOW SHOE CLUB.—A new snow shoe club has been formed, the membership of which is to be confined to ladies. When circumstances require it, Deseronto young ladies can be as selfish and exclusive as the young men.

It is quite evident from the occurrences of last Tuesday evening that the whole crew of old bachelors, who pledged themselves to stick together to the last button, may just as well accept the situation and unconditionally surrender. Who'll be the first?

NEW MAP.—Mr. J. Ferris Ward, of Toronto, was in town on Saturday canvassing for a new map of Ontario, published by J. B. Carter, of Toronto. The map is valuable for railway references as it indicates every line in the Province. It would be a valuable addition to the public school property.

In order to keep the hands in the tailoring department of the Big Store employed during the dull season they will manufacture clothing at greatly reduced prices. A new lot of tweeds just opened, the best value ever shown in Deseronto. See their tweed at 50c. a yard, worth 65c. All other lines at proportionately low figures.

SLEIGH DRIVE.—A large party of young folks drove out last Friday evening to the residence of Mrs. E. J. Jones near Nanapanee, where they enjoyed themselves most royally. The various pitch-holes along the road only rendered the ride the more enjoyable, and all those who were fortunate enough to belong to the party were more than pleased with the evening's enjoyment and look forward to a repetition of the same.

DESTITUTION.—A family some two or three miles from the village is reported to be in a state of extreme destitution, having been living for some time on the charity of the public. Their immediate wants have been supplied and steps have been taken to bring the matter before the proper authorities with a view for their relief. There appears to be some defect in the method of securing assistance from councils in such cases. It is quite possible for people to be on the verge of starvation for months before aid may be secured from the proper authorities.

BAY OF QUINTE CANNING CO.—Mr. Boulter of the Bay of Quinte Canning Co., Picton, called on us last week. He reports a very successful year's business, the firm having put up over $30,000 of goods last year. They make a specialty of preserved goods, and by employing skilled workmen and exercising great care and attention, have acquired the enviable reputation of producing an article of a quality superior to any put up elsewhere in Canada. Their success has encouraged them to extend their business. Mr. Geo. McCarthy, formerly of Deseronto, is now the representative of the firm on the road.

PICTON STAGE.—The Picton Gazette states that Hicks and Gordon are carrying the thanks of the Prince Edward people for the manner in which they are carrying the mails between Picton and Deseronto. Notwithstanding the mountains of snow, and almost impassable state of the roads, they are delivering the mails with commendable regularity. This is high praise but nothing more than they deserve. If it were not for the Bay of Quinte R.Y. and Picton Stage Line, Picton would have been a dreary place this winter, shut out as it would have been from the rest of the world. The stage has carried a great number of passengers and last week especially was crowded with business men and other travellers.

U. E. LOYALISTS.—The Rev. S. Forneri Rector of Adolphstown kindly writes to inform us that the adjourned meeting in Adolphstown for the purpose of considering the subject of a local U. E. L. celebration was held on the 23rd inst. Parker Allen, Esq., was requested to take the chair. A committee was appointed to carry out the object of the meeting, with power to add to their number from the surrounding municipalities. The committee was also instructed to consider the matter of a public monument, and also of restoring the neglected U. E. L. Cemetery. The Government was to be asked for a grant. The attendance at the meeting was good, but the weather was unfavorable for many friends from a distance to be present.

We gladly welcome correspondence from Marmora, and our readers would be more than pleased to hear frequently from that thriving village.

TIMELY GIFT.—The Rathbun Company have very generously presented the school board with five very fine maps, among them being a large map of the Dominion and one of the World.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. R. H. Baker has sold one of his farms in North Deseronto to Mr. Samuel Hamby for $3,500. Mr. Hamby is to be congratulated on securing such a desirable property in such a locality, convenient as it is to Deseronto market.

MODEL TOWN.—Enquiries at the central police station show that, so far this year, there have been no arrests for drunkenness or rowdiness, etc., within the limits of the town. This speaks well for the citizens of Deseronto, and is at the same time a proof of the beneficent influence exercised by THE TRIBUNE on all classes of the community.

COLD SNAP.—We had the usual share of weather since the last issue of THE TRIBUNE, and of such a character as to suit the taste of the most fastidious. Last Thursday evening the thermometer began to fall rapidly until it reached 15° below zero at eleven o'clock. On Friday morning about five o'clock, the thermometer registered 33° below zero, the coldest day of the season, and as some say, the coldest ever experienced here since the settlement of the place. There was, however, no wind, and the air was as pure and exhilarating as ever it was in Regina or Winnipeg. Yesterday the promised January thaw came to hand.

THE WARDENSHIP.—There was quite an exciting time over the election of Warden for the county at the late meeting of the County Council. Two gentlemen, Mr. Wilmot, of Sydney, and Dr. Faulkner were nominated and the clerk declared the latter had a majority. There were 29 members present when the vote was taken; one, Mr. Gunter, having just entered the room did not vote, and fourteen have made a declaration that they voted for Mr. Wilmot and that consequently Dr. Faulkner could not have had the majority as the clerk declared. The clerk on the other hand asserted that he counted correctly. The yeas and nays were called for, but as the clerk had previously made his declaration this was objected to by the friends of Dr. Faulkner, who maintained that the Clerk having counted and declared their candidate elected, there could be no recount made at that stage, and Dr. Faulkner having qualified took his seat as Warden for 1884. It is quite possible, however, that the matter may yet be tested in the courts.

REUNION.—The Congregation of the Church of the Redeemer held their annual Reunion last Tuesday evening. There was a very large attendance and the handsome little church looked at its best, being brilliantly lighted and the platform decorated with a rich profusion of rare flowers exquisitely arranged by Mr. S. Croft. The duties of Chairman were admirably performed by Mr. E. W. Rathbun, whose happy manner contributed largely to the success of the meeting. There was a total absence of formality, all being desirous to show themselves friendly, the young ladies especially being assiduously active in their endeavours to draw out the timid and retiring young men who were present. Readings were given by Mr. J. W. Dexter and Rev. R. J. Craig, the latter gentleman also delivering a very happy address. Vocal solos were nicely given by Mrs. Gough and Miss Anderson, and a quartette consisting of Miss Rathbun, Miss Barnhart, Mr. H. Aylsworth and H. Rathbun sang several pieces very sweetly. Miss Hodgkin played some selections on the organ with good taste and Mr. E. C. French also rendered some pieces in a manner which was highly appreciated. After a vain attempt to intimidate the representative of THE TRIBUNE, the chairman and Mr. James Burgess, in short addresses, appealed in most affecting terms to the young ladies present, to improve the shining hours of Leap Year, after which this most enjoyable meeting was brought to a close.

MARRIAGES.

SEYMOUR BROWN.—At Deseronto, Jan. 30th, by the Rev. L. O. Mallery, Mr. Jas. Seymour to Miss Jane Brown, both of Deseronto.

BAKER—EASTMAN.—At the Cathedral, Quebec, on January 4th, by the Rev. G. V. Housman, Rector, George William Baker, of Winnipeg, barrister-at-law, eldest son of the late Godfrey Phipps Baker, Postmaster of Ottawa, to Jeanne Harward Eastman, daughter of W. C. Richardson, Esq., of Berewick Lodge, Beauport, Quebec.
